

MAKE IT STICK

5 Simple Ways You Can Make This Week Stick

Faith Fails Week 1

THIS WEEK: ABRAHAM

LATER TODAY:

What did you learn this morning?:

When Abraham traveled to Egypt, he lied and told the Pharaoh that his wife Sarah was actually his sister. Years later, Abraham repeated the same FAIL when he lied to Abimelek. Despite his repeated failure, God chose Abraham to be the father of the nation of Israel. Even though we may have made lots of mistakes or the same mistake over and over like Abraham, God will still forgive us when we admit our sins and our need to be saved. Genesis 12:10-20, Abram in Egypt, Genesis 20:1-13, Abraham and Abimelek

HANGING OUT:

Make this week's lesson real:

Watch some fail videos with your kids this week, or some America's Funniest Videos. (Note: you may want to screen videos first, as some fail channels on YouTube have content not appropriate for children.) Ask your kids to tell you what they learned about Abraham's fails and how God still used Abraham's life to do something good.

AT DINNER:

Here are some great discussion starters:

- Why did Abraham lie about his wife twice?
- Why did God give Abraham a second and third chance?
- Can God use us to do good things, even when we fail Him?

AT BEDTIME:

Quiz yourself on this week's memory verse:

"The Lord takes good care of all those who fall. He lifts up all those who feel helpless."
Psalm 145:14 (NIRV)

WHAT'S THE DEAL?:

What you need to know: Fail videos remind us that we're all human. They remind us that no one's perfect. No one can live a perfect life, but God will forgive our sins and use us to do His will. Ask God to use you in spite of your "fails" this week.
