

MAKE IT STICK

5 Simple Ways You Can Make This Sunday Stick

Faith Fails Week 2

THIS WEEK: SARAH

LATER TODAY:

What did you learn this morning?

When the angel said that Sarah would have a child, she laughed. FAIL. Then she lied about it. FAIL AGAIN. One year later, Sarah was the mother of Isaac. God turned her laughter of doubt into joyful laughter. Genesis 18:1-15, 21:1-6, Sarah Laughs

HANGING OUT:

Make this week's lesson real:

Think of a time when God turned something unpleasant in your life into something good. Share that story with your kids or a friend. If someone you know has a down day this week, pray that God will give them joy at seeing God at work.

AT DINNER:

Here are some great discussion starters:

- Why did Sarah laugh about having a baby?
- How did God turn Sarah's sorrow into joy?
- What should we do when we feel sad or sorrowful?

AT BEDTIME:

This week's memory verse:

"The Lord takes good care of all those who fall. He lifts up all those who feel helpless."
Psalm 145:14 (NirV)

What's the deal:

What you need to know:

It's easy to get discouraged when you don't see God at work, but God can turn the impossible into the possible. When you don't feel that God is at work in your life, pray and ask God to replace that feeling with trust and hope.
