Remember to PREACH.

1. IS THE SERMON THEOLOGICALLY RICH?

“Sermons should have real teaching in them, and their doctrine should be solid, substantial, and abundant.”

2. IS THE SERMON ROOTED IN THE TEXT?

“A sermon comes with far greater power when it is plainly the very word of God—not a lecture about the Scripture. Do not thrust the text out of sight to make room for your own thinkings.”

3. IS THE SERMON PRACTICAL?

“Those doctrines which are not vital to the soul’s salvation, nor even essential to practical Christianity, are not to be considered upon every occasion of worship.”

4. DID I PREPARE WELL?

“We must throw all our strength of judgment, memory, imagination, and eloquence into the delivery of the gospel; and not give our random thoughts while wayside topics engross our deeper meditations.”

5. AM I TRYING TO BE IMPRESSIVE?

“Build not with wood, hay, and stubble, but with gold, silver, and precious stones. It is better to give the people masses of unprepared truth in the rough, like pieces of meat from a butcher’s block, than ostentatiously and delicately hand them out upon a china dish a delicious slice of nothing at all, decorated with the parsley of poetry, and flavoured with the sauce of affectation.”

6. IS THE SERMON FOCUSED?

“Do not overload a sermon with too much matter. All truth is not to be comprised in one discourse. There is such a thing as having too much to say, and saying it till hearers are sent home loathing rather than longing.”

7. IS THE SERMON ORGANIZED?

“In preaching, have a place for everything, and everything in its place. Never suffer truths to fall from you pell-mell. Do not let your thoughts rush as a mob, but make them march as troops of soldiers.”

8. DOES THE SERMON ENTERTAIN FALSE DOCTRINE?

“If we give our people refined truth, pure Scriptural doctrine, and all so worded as to have no needless obscurity about it, we shall be true shepherds of the sheep, and the profiting of our people will soon be apparent.”

9. IS THE SERMON FRESH?

“Endeavor to keep the matter of your preaching as fresh as you can. Do not rehearse five or six doctrines with unvarying monotony of repetition. With abundant themes diligently illustrated by fresh metaphors and experiences, we shall not weary, but, under God’s hand, shall win our hearers’ ears and hearts.”

10. AM I GROWING AS A STUDENT OF GOD’S WORD?

“Let your teachings grow and advance; let them deepen with your experience, and rise with your soul-progress.”

11. IS THE SERMON MERELY MORALISM?

“To choose mere moral themes will be to use a wooden dagger; but the great truths of revelation are as sharp swords. Remain unwaveringly the champions of a soul-winning gospel.”

12. WILL THIS SERMON PREACH CHRIST?

“Preach Christ, always and evermore. He is the whole gospel. His person, offices, and work must be our one great, all-comprehending theme. The world needs still to be told of its Savior, and of the way to reach him.”

CHILD DEDICATION

- JL: Welcome

- Steve: Offering (transition into child dedication)

- Steve: Every so often we get to celebrate a really significant milestone in the lives of some of our families who call Riverside home. Today is one of those days! In just a moment Janet Lynn, our kids director, is going to invite some folks who are making a commitment—to the best of their abilities—to raise their children in homes which recognize their kids as gifts from God and accept the responsibility to model real and authentic relationships with Jesus.

- Janet Lynn, You and some of our staff have spent time with these families, praying with them, getting to know them. Can you call them up and tell us a little more about your journey with them?

- JL: Yes of course! Let me start with, Riverside what a privilege for our church family to be a part of this child dedication Today we are

- We are dedicating these children to the Lord and praying that they would come to know him and serve him

- We are dedicating these parents to the Lord and praying that they be given wisdom, understanding, knowledge and ability to raise this child in the way of the Lord

- We are dedicating ourselves as a church family to be the village that helps to raise these children

- Families, staff and any elders please come up

CHILD DEDICATION

- Earlier today, here at church we spent the morning with these beautiful families. We spent some time praying for their children and for these parents. We heard the life verses they have picked for their children. We got to eat together. It was a good morning.

- Introduce the families: (Steve on stage right and JL on stage left)

- Steve and JL hold mic, ask them to introduce selves.

- Steve: These are parents who recognize their own need for Jesus and their dependence on him and his love and grace and want their kids to come to know that as well.
- Families, do you agree to run after God in your homes, to seek to put Jesus first in your own lives and the lives of your children?
- Church, we have been called into the body of Jesus, his family. These parents need this family, this community of redemption to help, to support, and to encourage them toward Christ. Do we commit to do that?

- JL: We are going to take some time praying with these families. While the staff and Elders are praying we are going to ask you to sing a song over these families.

- The Words of Christ to the Apostle Paul:
 - (2 Cor 12:9-10)
 - 9 But he said to me, “My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness.”
Therefore I will boast all the more gladly of my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may rest upon me. 10 For the sake of Christ, then, I am content with weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions, and calamities. For when I am weak, then I am strong.
- Is it okay not to be okay?
- Is it okay not to be okay here?

•Numbers 6:24

- The LORD bless you and keep you; the LORD make his face to shine upon you
and be gracious
to you; the LORD lift up his countenance upon you and give you peace.

• 16 And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Helper, to be with you forever, 17 even the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, for he dwells with you and will be in you.

• 18 “I will not leave you as orphans; I will come to you. 19 Yet a little while and the world will see me no more, but you will see me. Because I live, you also will live. 20 In that day you will know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you.
