

Hebrews 11:24–28

Title: Faith That Chooses God Over the World

Background and Context

1. Hebrews chapter 11 emphasizes faith as active trust expressed through obedience.
2. Moses is presented as an example of faith because he chose God over status and comfort.
3. The author of Hebrews highlights Moses' faithful choices rather than focusing on his failures.

Faith and Identity (Hebrews 11:24)

4. By faith, Moses refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter.
5. Moses rejected a false identity built on power, wealth, and privilege.
6. Faith often reveals itself in what we refuse as much as in what we accept.

Faith and Suffering (Hebrews 11:25)

7. Moses chose to be mistreated with the people of God.
8. Sin offers pleasure that is temporary (or fleeting), not eternal.
9. Faith weighs temporary comfort against eternal consequences.

Faith and True Treasure (Hebrews 11:26)

10. Moses considered the reproach of Christ greater wealth than the treasures of Egypt.
11. Moses looked forward to the eternal reward rather than earthly riches.
12. Faith values Christ above all worldly gain.

Faith and Endurance (Hebrews 11:27)

13. Moses endured by seeing Him who is invisible.
14. Faith allows believers to walk by faith rather than by sight.
15. Endurance flows from a constant awareness of God's presence.

Faith and Obedience (Hebrews 11:28)

16. By faith, Moses kept the Passover and sprinkled the blood.
17. The blood protected Israel from the destroyer of the firstborn.
18. The Passover points forward to Christ as the Lamb of God.

Key Truths

19. Faith defines who we belong to before it defines what we do.
20. True faith expresses itself through obedient action.
21. Faith chooses God's promises over the world's rewards.
