

Another Comforter Jn.16

How much do you value the Holy Spirit?

Why is "Holy" in His name?

Is the Holy Spirit a person or merely an essence/power? How should we refer to the HS?

Do you embrace the Triune God, the Trinity?

Can a true Christian not have the Holy Spirit living within them?

Do you know the following terms about the Holy Spirit and His ministry?

- Baptism of
- Indwelling
- Illuminating
- Filling
- Fruit of
- Gifts of
- Adoption
- Regeneration

Which is more important, the fruit or the gifts of the Spirit? How do we know?

How many voices do we hear? Are we influenced by?

Do you have an ear to the Spirit's voice? Do you know when He's leading? Not someone or something else?

How do you discern the Spirit's voice from others?

Do you expect to be hated? Why do we crave approval from the world?

Jesus said it's better that He goes away so the Spirit can come, have you experienced that?

Jerusalem.³ He was sinned against and lied to.⁴

The Scriptures also attest to the deity of the Holy Spirit. He is spoken of as God and is identified with the title of Jehovah.⁵ The Christian who is indwelt by the Spirit is indwelt by God.⁶ The Holy Spirit possesses the attributes of deity, such as omniscience, omnipresence, omnipotence and eternity.⁷ He does works only God can do, such as creating, regenerating and sanctifying.⁸ He is equally associated with the other members of the Trinity.⁹

The work of the Holy Spirit in the Old Testament differed somewhat from His work in the New Testament. The possession of the Holy Spirit by the believer was not permanent in every case.¹⁰ The Spirit had a ministry of restraining sin and in the creation of the world.¹¹

The Holy Spirit today plays a major role in the application of salvation to the individual. It is the Spirit who brings conviction to the unbeliever and causes him to see the truth of the gospel in a clear light.¹² Those who respond to this conviction and place their faith in Jesus Christ receive eternal life and a new nature.¹³ The Holy Spirit unites the believer with Christ and places him in the body of Christ, the church.¹⁴ He also unites the believer with Christ in His death, enabling him to live victoriously over sin.¹⁵ The Holy Spirit controls the believer who yields to God and submits himself to God's Word.¹⁶ When these conditions are met, the believer lives in the power of the Spirit and produces the fruit of the Spirit.¹⁷

The Holy Spirit indwells the believer permanently.¹⁸ While the child of God may sin and grieve the Spirit, the Spirit will never leave the true believer.¹⁹ Absence of the Holy Spirit is the mark of the unsaved.²⁰ The Holy Spirit seals the believer.²¹ This ministry guarantees the security of the believer "until the day of redemption."²²

The Holy Spirit sovereignly bestows spiritual gifts or abilities for service to every believer.²³ Although His restraint of evil in the world today will cease with the rapture,²⁴ He will continue to be present in the earth. In the tribulation period the Spirit will be involved in salvation and filling.²⁵ In the coming kingdom of Jesus Christ, the Spirit will be in God's people and the Spirit will be upon the King.²⁶

To be with you FOREVER!

Remember Jesus often sent the disciples out 2x2, without Himself?

The Holy Spirit will go with us even when we're alone!

The Holy spirit indwelt believers in the Old Testament too, He just didn't stay permanently!

Some Bible readers assume that the Spirit's activity in Scripture is limited to the New Testament. But actually He is just as active in the Old Testament.

No clearer statement of the intimate interworking of the triune God—Father, Son and Holy Spirit—and especially of the Spirit's powerful role can be found in the Old Testament than in Isaiah's prophecy of the Servant of the Lord (Isaiah 42:1-9). The passage summarizes the redeeming work of all three Persons of the Trinity in the salvation of the lost. Thus it ties together in remarkable harmony both the Old Testament and New Testament understandings of God's grace. It also sheds light on our understanding of the Holy Spirit.

1. The Spirit participated in creation (Genesis 1:2; Job 26:13; Isaiah 32:15).
2. The Spirit gives life to humanity and the other creatures (Psalm 104:29, 30). It is interesting that when Genesis says God endows people with life by breathing into their nostrils the “breath of life” (Genesis 2:7), the word for “breath” is the same word translated elsewhere as “spirit.”

3. The Spirit strives with sinners (Genesis 6:3), which is perhaps related to His work in convicting people of sin (John 16:8-11).

4. The Spirit came upon certain judges, warriors, and prophets in a way that gave them extraordinary power: for example, Joshua (Numbers 27:18), Othniel (Judges 3:10), Gideon (Judges 6:34), Samson (Judges 13:25; 14:6), and Saul (1 Samuel 10:9, 10). However, the Spirit later departed from Saul because of his disobedience (1 Samuel 16:14). 1Sa 16:14 14 Now the Spirit of the LORD left Saul, and an evil spirit from the LORD terrified him.

5. The Spirit played a prominent role in the long span of Old Testament prophecy. David declared that “the Spirit of the Lord spoke by me, and His word was on my tongue” (2 Samuel 23:2). Likewise, Ezekiel reported that “the Spirit entered me when He spoke to me” (Ezekiel 2:2).

6. The Spirit inspired holiness in Old Testament believers (Psalm 143:10). And Scripture promised that someday God would put His Spirit in His people in a way that would cause them to live according to His statutes (Ezekiel 36:27).

7. The Spirit was crucial in helping God’s people anticipate the ministry of the Messiah. For example, Isaiah 11:1-5 is a trinitarian preview of the working of the Father, the Spirit, and the Son, who is the Branch of Jesse. Looking forward to the ministry of Jesus Christ, the Holy Spirit inspired Isaiah to prophesy: “The Spirit of the Lord shall rest upon Him” (Isaiah 11:2), inspiring God’s Chosen One with wisdom, understanding, counsel, might, knowledge, fear of the Lord, righteousness, and faithfulness. Thus we come full cycle to the New Testament, where Jesus claimed to be the fulfillment of this prophecy (Isaiah 61:1, 2; Luke 4:18, 19).

The Helper, the Holy Spirit

† Jn 14:16, 26 - “I will ask the Father, and He will give you another Helper, so that He may be with you forever;” . . . “But the Helper, the Holy Spirit whom the Father will send in My name, He will teach you all things, and remind you of all that I said to you.”

1. Another helper of the same kind! Like Jesus...with you forever! “He”, not it, not her...
2. Helper!...He is specifically emphasized as being Holy! How is He helping you?!!
3. Teach you all things! And Remind you of all I said (The written word!) He speaks most powerfully and clearly in/thru scripture (Which He inspired and would never contradict)
4. Then Spirit of Truth. Jhn 16:13 "But when He, the Spirit of truth, comes, He will guide you into all the truth; for He will not speak on His own, but whatever He hears, He will speak; and He will disclose to you what is to come.
5. He always points attention to Jesus, never to Himself! [Jhn 16:14 NASB20] 14 "He will glorify Me, for He will take from Mine and will disclose [it] to you." He always exalts Jesus, above Himself and especially YOU! Humility

Its always easiest to hear the voice of the one with whom you are most familiar (closest) and in tune/love, obey

So then, IF you are living a life of disobedience and self will, its hard to hear the Holy Spirit, IF He is even talking to you in the moment.

[Rom 8:26-27 NASB20] 26 Now in the same way the Spirit also helps our weakness; for we do not know what to pray for as we should, but the Spirit Himself intercedes for [us] with groanings too deep for words; 27 and He who searches the hearts knows what the mind of the Spirit is, because He intercedes for the saints according to [the will of] God.

Jesus had spoken only the Father's words, but the disciples always had trouble understanding Him during His earthly ministry. For example, John 12:16 says, "These things His disciples did not understand at the first; but when Jesus was glorified, then they remembered that these things were written of Him, and that they had done these things to Him." In John 16:12 Jesus says, "I have many more things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now."

Now He was turning over His teaching of the disciples to the Holy Spirit, who would dwell in them: "These things I have spoken to you while abiding with you. But the Helper, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in My name, He will teach you all things, and bring to your remembrance all that I said to you" (John 14:25-26).

The Helper, the Holy Spirit

Our conscience is not always God speaking! We can have a poorly trained conscience!
Don't always let your conscience be your guide!

[Act 23:1 NASB20] 1 Now looking intently at the Council, Paul said, "Brothers, I have lived my life with an entirely good conscience before God up to this day."

[Act 24:16 NASB20] 16 "In view of this I also do my best to maintain a blameless conscience [both] before God and before [other] people, always.

[Rom 2:15 NASB20] 15 in that they show the work of the Law written in their hearts, their conscience testifying and their thoughts alternately accusing or else defending them,

[Rom 9:1 NASB20] 1 I am telling the truth in Christ, I am not lying; my conscience testifies with me in the Holy Spirit, [Rom 13:5 NASB20] 5 Therefore it is necessary to be in subjection, not only because of wrath, but also for the sake of conscience.

[1Co 8:7, 10, 12 NASB20] 7 However, not all people have this knowledge; but some, being accustomed to the idol until now, eat [food] as if it were sacrificed to an idol; and their conscience, being weak, is defiled. ... 10 For if someone sees you, the one who has knowledge, dining in an idol's temple, will his conscience, if he is weak, not be strengthened to eat things sacrificed to idols? ... 12 And so, by sinning against the brothers [and sisters] and wounding their conscience when it is weak, you sin against Christ.

[1Co 10:25, 27-29 NASB20] 25 Eat anything that is sold in the meat market without asking questions, for the sake of conscience; ... 27 If one of the unbelievers invites you and you want to go, eat anything that is set before you without asking questions, for the sake of conscience. 28 But if anyone says to you, "This is meat sacrificed to idols," do not eat [it,] for the sake of that one who informed [you] and for the sake of conscience; 29 Now [by] "conscience" I do not mean your own, but the other person's; for why is my freedom judged by another's conscience?

2Co 1:12 For our proud confidence is this: the testimony of our conscience, that in holiness and godly sincerity, not in fleshly wisdom but in the grace of God, we have conducted ourselves in the world, and especially toward you.

2Co 4:2 but we have renounced the things hidden because of shame, not walking in trickery nor distorting the word of God, but by the open proclamation of the truth commending ourselves to every person's conscience in the sight of God.

[1Ti 1:5, 19 But the goal of our instruction is love from a pure heart, [from] a good conscience, and [from] a sincere faith. ... 19 keeping faith and a good conscience, which some have rejected and suffered shipwreck in regard to their faith.

[1Ti 3:9 NASB20] 9 [but] holding to the mystery of the faith with a clear conscience.

[1Ti 4:2 NASB20] 2 by means of the hypocrisy of liars seared in their own conscience as with a branding iron,

[2Ti 1:3 NASB20] 3 I thank God, whom I serve with a clear conscience the way my forefathers did, as I constantly remember you in my prayers night and day, [Tit 1:15 NASB20] 15 To the pure, all things are pure; but to those who are defiled and unbelieving, nothing is pure, but both their mind and their conscience are defiled.

[Heb 9:9, 14 NASB20] 9 which [is] a symbol for the present time. Accordingly both gifts and sacrifices are offered which cannot make the worshiper perfect in conscience, ... 14 how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered Himself without blemish to God, cleanse your conscience from dead works to serve the living God?

[Heb 10:22 NASB20] 22 let's approach [God] with a sincere heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled [clean] from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water.

[Heb 13:18 NASB20] 18 Pray for us, for we are sure that we have a good conscience, desiring to conduct ourselves honorably in all things.

[1Pe 2:19 NASB20] 19 For this [finds] favor, if for the sake of conscience toward God a person endures grief when suffering unjustly.

[1Pe 3:16, 21 NASB20] 16 and keep a good conscience so that in the thing in which you are slandered, those who disparage your good behavior in Christ will be put to shame. ...

21 Corresponding to that, baptism now saves you--not the removal of dirt from the flesh, but an appeal to God for a good conscience--through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, [Jhn 9:22 NASB20] 22 His parents said this because they were afraid of the Jews; for the Jews had already reached the decision that if anyone confessed Him to be Christ, he was to be excommunicated from the synagogue.

[Jhn 12:42 NASB20] 42 Nevertheless many, even of the rulers, believed in Him, but because of the Pharisees they were not confessing [Him,] so that they would not [1Pe 3:14-16 NASB20] 14 But even if you should suffer for the sake of righteousness, you are blessed. AND DO NOT FEAR THEIR INTIMIDATION, AND DO NOT BE IN DREAD, 15 but sanctify Christ as Lord in your hearts, always [being] ready to make a defense to everyone who asks you to give an account for the hope that is in you, but with gentleness and respect; 16 and keep a good conscience so that in the thing in which you are slandered, those who disparage your good behavior in Christ will be put to shame.

[1Pe 4:4, 12, 15-16, 19 NASB20] 4 In [all] this, they are surprised that you do not run with [them] in the same excesses of debauchery, and they slander [you;] ... 12 Beloved, do not be surprised at the fiery ordeal among you, which comes upon you for your testing, as though [something] strange were happening to you; ... 15 Make sure that none of you suffers as a murderer, or thief, or evildoer, or a troublesome meddler; 16 but if [anyone suffers] as a Christian, he is not to be ashamed, but is to glorify God in this name. ... 19 Therefore, those also who suffer according to the will of God are to entrust their souls to a faithful Creator in doing what is right.

One could argue that we're in the business of protecting critical infrastructure, and the most critical infrastructure is our cognitive infrastructure ... We now live in a world where people talk about alternative facts, post-truth, which I think is really, really dangerous if people get to pick their own facts.

[Jhn 17:17 NASB20] 17 "Sanctify them in the truth; Your word is truth.

[1Ki 17:24 NASB20] 24 Then the woman said to Elijah, "Now I know that you are a man of God, and that the word of the LORD in your mouth is truth."

[2Co 3:18 NASB20] 18 But we all, with unveiled faces, looking as in a mirror at the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory, just as from the Lord, the Spirit.

[Eph 5:26 NASB20] 26 so that He might sanctify her, having cleansed her by the washing of water with the word, [2Th 2:13 NASB20] 13 But we should always give thanks to God for you, brothers [and sisters] beloved by the Lord, because God has chosen you from the beginning for salvation through sanctification by the Spirit and faith in the truth.

[Jas 1:21 NASB20] 21 Therefore, ridding [yourselves] of all filthiness and [all] that remains of wickedness, in humility receive the word implanted, which is able to save your souls.

[Act 4:31 NASB20] 31 And when they had prayed, the place where they had gathered together was shaken, and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and [began] to speak the word of God with boldness.

[Eph 6:17 NASB20] 17 And take the helmet of salvation and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God.

[1Th 1:5-6 NASB20] 5 for our gospel did not come to you in word only, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and with full conviction; just as you know what kind of men we proved to be among you for your sakes. 6 You also became imitators of us and of the Lord, having received the word during great affliction with the joy of the Holy Spirit, [Mat 12:32 NASB20] 32 "And whoever speaks a word against the Son of Man, it shall be forgiven him; but whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit, it shall not be forgiven him, either in this age or in the [age] to come.

Jesus had spoken only the Father's words, but the disciples always had trouble understanding Him during His earthly ministry. For example, John 12:16 says, "These things His disciples did not understand at the first; but when Jesus was glorified, then they remembered that these things were written of Him, and that they had done these things to Him." In John 16:12 Jesus says, "I have many more things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now."

Now He was turning over His teaching of the disciples to the Holy Spirit, who would dwell in them: "These things I have spoken to you while abiding with you. But the Helper, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in My name, He will teach you all things, and bring to your remembrance all that I said to you" (John 14:25-26).

For our Charismatic brothers!

[Deu 13:1-9 NASB20] 1 "If a prophet or a dreamer of dreams arises among you and gives you a sign or a wonder, 2 and the sign or the wonder comes [true,] of which he spoke to you, saying, 'Let's follow other gods (whom you have not known) and let's serve them,' 3 you shall not listen to the words of that prophet or dreamer of dreams; for the LORD your God is testing you to find out whether you love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul. 4 "You shall follow the LORD your God and fear Him; and you shall keep His commandments, listen to His voice, serve Him, and cling to Him. 5 "But that prophet or that dreamer of dreams shall be put to death, because he has spoken falsely against the LORD your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt and redeemed you from the house of slavery, to drive you from the way in which the LORD your God commanded you to walk. So you shall eliminate the evil from among you. 6 "If your brother, your mother's son, or your son or daughter, or the wife you cherish, or your friend who is like your own soul, entices you secretly, saying, 'Let's go and serve other gods' (whom neither you nor your fathers have known, 7 of the gods of the peoples who are around you, near you, or far from you, from one end of the earth to the other end), 8 you shall not consent to him or listen to him; and your eye shall not pity him, nor shall you spare or conceal him. 9 "Instead, you shall most certainly kill him; your hand shall be first against him to put him to death, and afterward the hand of all the people.

[Deu 13:10-11 NASB20] 10 "So you shall stone him to death, because he has attempted to drive you away from the LORD your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery. 11 "Then all Israel will hear [about it] and be afraid, and will not do such a wicked thing among you again.

[Jer 23:32-40 NASB20] 32 "Behold, I am against those who have prophesied false dreams," declares the LORD, "and reported them and led My people astray by their lies and reckless boasting; yet I did not send them nor command them, nor do they provide this people the slightest benefit," declares the LORD. 33 "Now when this people or the prophet or a priest asks you, saying, 'What is the pronouncement of the LORD?' then you shall say to them, 'What pronouncement?' The LORD declares, 'I will abandon you.' 34 "Then as for the prophet or the priest or the people who say, 'The pronouncement of the LORD,' I will bring punishment upon that person and his household. 35 "This is what each one of you will say to his neighbor and to his brother: 'What has the LORD answered?' or, 'What has the LORD spoken?' 36 "For you will no longer remember the pronouncement of the LORD, because every person's own word will become the pronouncement, and you have perverted the words of the living God, the LORD of armies, our God. 37 "This is what you will say to [that] prophet: 'What has the LORD answered you?' and, 'What has the LORD spoken?' 38 "And if you say, 'The pronouncement of the LORD!' for that reason the LORD says this: 'Because you said this word, "The pronouncement of the LORD!" I have also sent [word] to you, saying, "You shall not say, 'The pronouncement of the LORD!'"' 39 "Therefore behold, I will certainly forget you and thrust you away from My presence, along with the city which I gave you and your fathers. 40 "I will put an everlasting disgrace on you and an everlasting humiliation which will not be forgotten."

The revelation which our Lord promises the apostles is not only from Christ, it is Christ-centered: "He will glorify me, because he will receive from me what is mine and will tell it to you. Everything that the Father has is mine; that is why I said the Spirit will receive from me what is mine and will tell it to you" (John 16:14-15).

The revelation which is promised is that truth which has come from the Father, to the Son, and through the Spirit. It is thus our Lord's teaching. But it is not merely the teaching of (i.e. from) our Lord; it is the teaching concerning our Lord. False revelations are those which appeal to man's fallen desires (2 Timothy 4:1-4; 2 Peter 2:18-22), which elevate men (Acts 20:30; 1 Corinthians 1:10ff.), and which draw men's focus away from Christ (1 Corinthians 1:22-31; 2 Peter 2:1; 1 John 2:18-25).

However, sin is against God, and people have suppressed the truth of God (cf. Rom. 1:18, 21, 25, 28).

[\[Jhn 3:16-18 NASB20\] 16 "For God so loved the world, that He gave His only Son, so that everyone who believes in Him will not perish, but have eternal life. 17 "For God did not send the Son into the world to judge the world, but so that the world might be saved through Him. 18 "The one who believes in Him is not judged; the one who does not believe has been judged already, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God.](#)

Righteousness because you are No where near good!

[Rom 3:10-12, 19, 23 NASB20] 10 as it is written: "THERE IS NO RIGHTEOUS PERSON, NOT EVEN ONE; 11 THERE IS NO ONE WHO UNDERSTANDS, THERE IS NO ONE WHO SEEKS OUT GOD; 12 THEY HAVE ALL TURNED ASIDE, TOGETHER THEY HAVE BECOME CORRUPT; THERE IS NO ONE WHO DOES GOOD, THERE IS NOT EVEN ONE." ... 19 Now we know that whatever the Law says, it speaks to those who are under the Law, so that every mouth may be closed and all the world may become accountable to God; ... 23 for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God,

Rom 10:3-4 For not knowing about God's righteousness and seeking to establish their own, they did not subject themselves to the righteousness of God. 4 For Christ is the end of the Law for righteousness to everyone who believes.

Judgment because Satan has been defeated!

[Mat 12:36, 41 NASB20] 36 "But I tell you that [for] every careless word that people speak, they will give an account of it on [the] day of judgment. ... 41 "The men of Nineveh will stand up with this generation at the judgment, and will condemn it because they repented at the preaching of Jonah; and behold, [something] greater than Jonah is here.

[Rom 2:3, 5 NASB20] 3 But do you suppose this, you [foolish] person who passes judgment on those who practice such things, and [yet] does them [as well,] that you will escape the judgment of God? ... 5 But because of your stubbornness and unrepentant heart you are storing up wrath for yourself on the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God,

[Rom 14:10 NASB20] 10 But [as for] you, why do you judge your brother [or sister?] Or you as well, why do you regard your brother [or sister] with contempt? For we will all appear before the judgment seat of God.

The Holy Spirit convicts the world concerning three things: sin and righteousness and judgment. The singular form of hamartias (sin) refers not to sin in general but specifically to the ultimate sin of refusing to believe in Jesus Christ. It is that sin that finally damns people, since all others are forgiven when a person believes savingly in Him (cf. Matt. 12:31–32). In John 3:18 Jesus said, "He who believes in Him (Christ) is not judged; he who does not believe has been judged already, because he has not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God." In 5:40 He rebuked those who were "unwilling to come to [Him] so that [they might] have life." He solemnly warned the unbelieving Jews, "Unless you believe that I am He, you will die in your sins" (John 8:24). The sole issue that determines people's eternal destiny is how they react to the Spirit's convicting ministry concerning their own sin and the provision of forgiveness by grace through Jesus Christ.

Second, Jesus told the disciples, "the Holy Spirit convicts the world concerning righteousness, because I go to the Father and you no longer see Me." The righteousness here is that which belongs to Jesus Christ by nature as the holy Son of God. This is the flip side of the previous point; not only does the Spirit convict unbelievers of their sin, but also of the necessity of having the perfect righteousness of Christ (cf. Matt. 5:20, 48). When their wickedness is compared to His sinless holiness, their sin is seen more truly for the detestable evil that it is. And the sinner is face-to-face with the impossibility of salvation by any effort, work, or achievement he may do.

The Lord's statement, because I go to the Father and you no longer see Me, provides the supreme evidence of His righteousness: His acceptance into the Father's presence. Habakkuk 1:13 says of God, "Your eyes are too pure to approve evil, and You can not look on wickedness with favor." When the Father "highly exalted Him, and bestowed on Him the name which is above every name" (Phil. 2:9), He Himself testified to Christ's righteousness. Those who heed the Spirit's testimony about their utter sinfulness and Christ's perfect righteousness and respond to the gospel in genuine faith, are instantly clothed with His righteousness. Their sins are placed fully on Him and, in His death at the hands of God's holy justice, He paid the penalty in full (Phil. 3:9; cf. Rom. 3:21-22; 4:5, 13; 5:21; 10:10; 1 Cor. 1:30; 2 Cor. 5:21). God justifies sinners when He accounts their sins to have been paid for by Christ's death and Christ's righteousness is credited to them by His grace alone.

Finally, the Holy Spirit convicts the world concerning judgment, because the ruler of this world has been judged. The world's judgments are erroneous and evil, as was supremely demonstrated by its rejection of the Son of God. But while the world is incapable of judging righteously (cf. 7:24), the Spirit always does so. He convicts people of their false assessment of Jesus Christ.

The ruler of this world is Satan (12:31; 14:30; 1 John 5:19). He has already been judged and cast from heaven along with the rest of the angels who rebelled with him (Rev. 12:7-9; cf. Luke 10:18). He was totally defeated at the cross (Col. 2:15; Heb. 2:14; 1 John 3:8), when what appeared to be his hour of triumph was in reality the hour of his undoing. Though Satan has been defeated and judged, the final sentence against him will not be carried out until the end of the millennium (Rev. 20:10). In the meantime he goes about as the god of this age, seeking to capture and devour souls. The sobering warning to those who embrace the world system is that since its ruler will not escape judgment, neither will they, unless they repent. The Devil's fate guarantees the judgment of every unrepentant sinner.

There are only two possible responses to the convicting work of the Spirit: repentance or rejection. From those who reject the Spirit's conviction will come hostility to the followers of Christ. Their end is "eternal destruction, away from the presence of the Lord and from the glory of His power" (2 Thess. 1:9). Those who repent when the Spirit convicts them will spend eternity in the inexpressible glory and joy of heaven. Yet they will, in this life, face fiery trials of persecution without a fatal defection because "greater is He who is in [them] than he who is in the world" (1 John 4:4).

Pneumatology: the Doctrine of the Holy Spirit

TRUTH	PASSAGES	MEANING
Deity of the Holy Spirit	1 Cor. 2:11 Rom. 8:9-11 Eph. 4:4	The titles, attributes, and works of the Holy Spirit each attest to His deity as the third person of the Trinity.
Personality of the Holy Spirit	Rom. 8:27 Eph. 4:30 Acts 16:6-11	As a member of the Trinity, the Holy Spirit has the attributes of a person: intellect, emotions, and will.
Work of the Holy Spirit in OT	Ps. 51:11 Gen. 41:38 Judg. 3:10 Jn. 14:16-17	In the OT, the Holy Spirit's ministry was selective, being temporary and transitory, meaning that His work was limited in extent, duration, and effect.
Regeneration of the Holy Spirit	Titus 3:5 Rom. 6:20 2 Cor. 5:17	Regeneration is the act by which God, through the Holy Spirit, grants eternal life to each believer, resulting in a new nature.
Baptism of the Holy Spirit	1 Cor. 12:13 Eph. 4:5 Mark 1:7-8	Through the baptizing work of the Holy Spirit, each believer is placed eternally into the body of Christ. Baptism is not equal to filling.
Sealing of the Holy Spirit	2 Cor. 1:22 Eph. 1:14; 4:30	The gift of the Holy Spirit is a guarantee (security) of the believer's salvation.
Indwelling of the Holy Spirit	Jn. 16:5-15 1 Cor. 3:16; 6:19 2 Cor. 5:5	Each believer is given the Holy Spirit as a gift, residing in Him to lead him to truth and righteousness.
Filling of the Holy Spirit	Eph. 5:18 Acts 2:4; 4:31 Col. 3:16	Through filling, the Holy Spirit's ministries are worked in and through the believer. Unlike regeneration, baptism, sealing and indwelling, this is a repeated activity.
Gifts of the Holy Spirit	Rom. 12:4-8 1 Cor. 12 Eph. 4:11-13 1 Pt. 4:7-11	The Holy Spirit equips believers with a gift(s) to build up the body of Christ.
Fruit of the Holy Spirit	Gal. 5:22-23	As a result of filling, the Holy Spirit's work will be realized and recognized in the life of the believer.

THE FLESH vs THE SPIRIT

THE FLESH

Galatians 5:19-21, "19 The acts of the flesh are obvious: sexual immorality, impurity and debauchery; 20 idolatry and witchcraft; hatred, discord, jealousy, fits of rage, selfish ambition, dissensions, factions 21 and envy; drunkenness, orgies, and the like. I warn you, as I did before, that those who live like this will not inherit the kingdom of God."

brain & senses

Galatians 5:24-25, "24 Those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. 25 Since we live by the Spirit, let us keep in step with the Spirit."

THE SPIRITUAL SOUL

Galatians 5:22-23, "22 But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, forbearance, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, 23 gentleness and self-control. Against such things there is no law."

The Holy Spirit's Revelation
John 16:12-15

"FOR THE FATHER HIMSELF LOVETH YOU,
BECAUSE YE HAVE LOVED ME, AND HAVE BELIEVED THAT I CAME OUT FROM GOD."
- JOHN 16:27 KJV
