[Gen 6:5-7 NASB20] 5 Then the LORD saw that the wickedness of mankind was great on the earth, and that every intent of the thoughts of their hearts was only evil continually. 6 So the LORD was sorry that He had made mankind on the earth, and

He was grieved in His heart. 7 Then the LORD said, "I will wipe out mankind whom I have created from the face of the land; mankind, and animals as well, and crawling things, and the birds of the sky. For I am sorry that I have made them."

Do you want to get most of the gangrene, cancer and Infection? OR all of it?

Gen.6:5-7

"Creation stands or falls on the Genesis Flood," stated a creation geologist years ago.

Why do the nations conspire and the peoples plot in vain?
The kings of the earth rise up and the rulers band together against the Lord and against his anointed, saying, “Let us break their chains and throw off their shackles.”
The One enthroned in heaven laughs;
the Lord scoffs at them.
He rebukes them in his anger and terrifies them in his wrath, saying,

~ Psalms 2:1-5 NIV

[Psa 2:1-5 NASB20] 1 Why are the nations restless And the peoples plotting in vain?
2 The kings of the earth take their stand And the rulers conspire together Against the LORD and against His Anointed, [saying,] 3 "Let's tear their shackles apart And throw their ropes away from us!" 4 He who sits in the heavens laughs, The Lord scoffs at them. 5 Then He will speak to them in His anger And terrify them in His fury, [saying,]

Week 1 – Methuselah – Longsuffering of God. He wants us to repent!

Week 2 – Gen.6 Wickedness is great on earth – We hate God and love our sin

Week 3 – Gen.6 We deserve Gods wrath! Wipe Out! A Global Flood was deserving!

We saw last week, the Nephilim (children of Seth/sons of God and wives of Adams other children including Cain), Men of renown, that NO Ones ever heard of!!! The real Hero of that time is Noah, Enoch and Meth!

We must remember the splendor, glory and power of whom we are either rebelling against or bowing in worship!

[Gen 6:3 NASB20] 3 Then the LORD said, "My Spirit will not remain with man forever, because he is also flesh; nevertheless his days shall be 120 years." YHWH

“I appeared to Abraham, to Isaac and to Jacob as God Almighty, but by my name the LORD [YHWH] I did not make myself fully known to them” (Exodus 6:3)

God told Moses that “this is my name forever, the name you shall call me from generation to generation” (Exodus 3:15; cf. Exodus 15:3).

The unpronounceable, covenantal four-letter Hebrew theonym יהוה transliterated as YHWH or YHVH) no vowels in Hebrew, the name of God in the Hebrew Bible. The four letters, written and read from right to left (in Hebrew), are yodh, he, waw, and he.[1] The name may be derived from a verb that means "to be", "to exist", "to cause to become", appears 6510x times in the Bible (1,815 of those in the Torah).

strictly speaking, the only proper name for God.

the form Yahweh is now accepted almost universally, though the vocalization Jehovah continues to have wide usage.[3][4][5]

most scholars point to YHWH first appearing in the Bible when God manifests Himself to Moses in the burning bush (Exodus 3). 33:19, 34:5

Prior to Exodus 3, the Israelites called their god Elohim or El – is a title, not a personal name – or “El Shaddai,” often translated as God Almighty.

ELOHIM [el-oh-heem]: God “Creator, Mighty and Strong” (Genesis 17:7; Jeremiah 31:33) – the plural form of Eloah. Being plural, Elohim which accommodates the doctrine of the Trinity. From the Bible’s first sentence, the superlative nature of God’s power is evident as God (Elohim) speaks the world into existence (Genesis 1:1).

[Exo 20:2-4, 7-8 NASB20] 2 "I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery. 3 "You shall have no other gods before Me. 4 "You shall not make for yourself an idol, or any likeness of what is in heaven above or on the earth beneath, or in the water under the earth. ... 7 "You shall not take the name of the LORD your God in vain, for the LORD will not leave him unpunished who takes His name in vain. 8 "Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy.

Theological anthropomorphisms

- Genesis 6:6 – So the LORD was sorry, that He had made mankind on the earth, and He was grieved in His heart.
- “And it repented the Lord” (KJV), regretted (NIV)

Does God really suffer? Does He have a box of Tissues on his desk?

Some translations say God repents? Really? Did He sin or make a bad decision?
Does He change His mind? Ever?

Some people refer to ships as Her, She or women, Disney uses anthropomorphisms all the time

We use these anthropomorphisms to help us relate to God, make Him a little more understandable

God doesn't Have a heart per se, but we sadden Him. and we cannot cause God to cry a tear or become depressed. He doesn't literally forget our sins BUT He will not bring them up to us and as far as HE is concerned He considers them paid for/resolved...

These verses are there to remind us we have offended the Almighty! The Sovereign of the Universe! God Knew we would sin, His longsuffering has been exhausted and our rebellion leaves Him with no choice but to dela with us as we deserve!

We know that God is “spirit,” meaning that God doesn’t have a physical body as we do. And yet God Himself speaks of redeeming His people “with outstretched arm.” Scripture also speaks of God’s “hand,” His “face,” His “eyes,” His “ears” — and even refers to His feet.

Scripture also anthropomorphizes God when it talks about Him “remembering” Rachel or “relenting” from bringing judgment when Moses implores Him to do so.

How can an all-knowing God “remember” Rachel if it was impossible for Him to forget her in the first place? And how can an all-knowing God “change his mind” about bringing judgment, as if Moses had presented some new information to Him He didn’t already know? Similarly, why would an all-seeing God have to ask “Where are you?” as He does of Adam in Genesis chapter 1?

The answer to these questions is that God is relating to His people by describing Himself with anthropomorphic language. He does so because, knowing the limitations of our minds and imaginations, He nevertheless wants us to know Him, so He speaks in terms which are intuitive and natural to us.

The word anthropomorphism comes from the Greek anthrō, meaning “human,” and morphē, meaning “form”: human form. Both those words appear in Philippians chapter 2, verses 6 and 7, which describe—if I can put it this way—the ultimate anthropomorphism. It says:

Though [Christ] was in the form [morphē] of God, [He] did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, but emptied Himself, by taking the form [morphē] of a servant, being born in the likeness of men [anthrōpos].

<https://www.ligonier.org/podcasts/simply-put/anthropomorphism>

In several places in the Bible, God is described as having the physical attributes of man. He “sets [his] face” against evil (Leviticus 20:6); the Lord will make “His face” to shine on you (Numbers 6:25); He “stretched out his hand” (Exodus 7:5; Isaiah 23:11), and God scattered enemies with His strong arm (Psalm 89:10). He “stoops down to look on the heavens and the earth" (Psalm 113:6). He "keeps his eye" on the land (Deuteronomy 11:12), the "eyes of the Lord" are on the righteous (Psalm 34:15), and the earth is His "footstool" (Isaiah 66:1). Do all these verses mean that God literally has eyes, a face, hands and feet? Not necessarily. God is spirit, not flesh and blood, but because we are not spirit, these anthropomorphisms help us to understand God's nature and actions.

Human emotions are also ascribed to God: He was "sorry" (Genesis 6:6), "jealous" (Exodus 20:5), "moved to pity" (Judges 2:18), and "grieved" over making Saul Israel's first king (1 Samuel 15:35). We read that the Lord "changed His mind" (Exodus 32:14), "relented" (2 Samuel 24:16), and will "remember" when He sees a rainbow in the sky (Genesis 9:16). God is "angry with the wicked every day" (Psalm 7:11), and He "burned with anger" against Job's friends (Job 32:5). Most precious to us is God's love, in which He predestines us to salvation (Ephesians 1:4-5) and because of which He gave His only Son in order to save the world (John 3:16).

[1Sa 15:11, 29, 35 NASB20] 11 "I regret[H5162] that I have made Saul king, because he has turned back from following Me and has not carried out My commands." And Samuel was furious and cried out to the LORD all night. ... 29 "Also the Glory of Israel will not lie nor change[H5162] His mind[H5162]; for He is not a man, that He would change[H5162] His mind[H5162]." ... 35 And Samuel did not see Saul again until the day of his death, though Samuel mourned for Saul. And the LORD regretted[H5162] that He had made Saul king over Israel.

[2Sa 24:16 NASB20] 16 When the angel extended his hand [toward] Jerusalem to destroy it, the LORD relented[H5162] of the disaster and said to the angel who destroyed the people, "It is enough! Now drop your hand!" And the angel of the LORD was by the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite.

[Psa 106:45 NASB20] 45 And He remembered His covenant for their sake, And relented[H5162] according to the greatness of His mercy.

[Psa 110:4 NASB20] 4 The LORD has sworn and will not change[H5162] His mind[H5162], "You are a priest forever According to the order of Melchizedek."

[Isa 1:24 NASB20] 24 Therefore the Lord GOD of armies, The Mighty One of Israel, declares, "Ah, I will have[H5162] satisfaction[H5162] against My adversaries, And avenge Myself on My enemies.

- Numbers 23:19 – “God is not man, that He would lie, nor a son of man, that He would change [H5162] His mind [H5162]; has He said, and will He not do it? Or has He spoken, and will He not make it good?”

The Lord observed the extent of human wickedness on the earth, and He saw that everything they thought or imagined was consistently and totally evil. So the Lord was sorry He had ever made them and put them on the earth.

Genesis 6:5-6

It broke His heart.

[Gen 6:6-7 NASB20] 6 So the LORD was sorry that He had made mankind on the earth, and He was grieved in His heart. 7 Then the LORD said, "I will wipe out mankind whom I have created from the face of the land; mankind, and animals as well, and crawling things, and the birds of the sky. For I am sorry that I have made them."

[Exo 32:14 NASB20] 14 So the LORD relented of the harm which He said He would do to His people.

[Num 23:19 NASB20] 19 "God is not a man, that He would lie, Nor a son of man, that He would change His mind; Has He said, and will He not do it? Or has He spoken, and will He not make it good?

[1Sa 15:11, 29 NASB20] 11 "I regret that I have made Saul king, because he has turned back from following Me and has not carried out My commands." And Samuel was furious and cried out to the LORD all night. ... 29 "Also the Glory of Israel will not lie nor change His mind; for He is not a man, that He would change His mind."

[2Sa 24:16 NASB20] 16 When the angel extended his hand [toward] Jerusalem to destroy it, the LORD relented of the disaster and said to the angel who destroyed the people, "It is enough! Now drop your hand!" And the angel of the LORD was by the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite.

[Psa 110:4 NASB20] 4 The LORD has sworn and will not change His mind, "You are a priest forever According to the order of Melchizedek."

[Jer 18:8-10 NASB20] 8 if that nation against which I have spoken turns from its evil, I will relent of the disaster that I planned to bring on it. 9 "Or at [another] moment I might speak concerning a nation or concerning a kingdom to build up or to plant [it;] 10 if it does evil in My sight by not obeying My voice, then I will relent of the good with which I said that I would bless it.

[Jer 26:19 NASB20] 19 "Did Hezekiah king of Judah and all Judah actually put him to death? Did he not fear the LORD and plead for the favor of the LORD, and the LORD relented of the disaster which He had pronounced against them? But we are committing a great evil against our own lives!"

[Jon 3:10 NASB20] 10 When God saw their deeds, that they turned from their evil way, then God relented of the disaster which He had declared He would bring on them. So He did not do [it.]

[Mal 3:6 NASB20] 6 "For I, the LORD, do not change; therefore you, the sons of Jacob, have not come to an end.

[Psa 78:40 NASB20] 40 How often they rebelled against Him in the wilderness And grieved Him in the desert!

[Isa 63:10 NASB20] 10 But they rebelled And grieved His Holy Spirit; Therefore He turned Himself to become their enemy, He fought against them.

[Eze 33:11 NASB20] 11 "Say to them, 'As I live!' declares the Lord GOD, 'I take no pleasure at all in the death of the wicked, but rather that the wicked turn from his way and live. Turn back, turn back from your evil ways! Why then should you die, house of Israel?'

[Luk 19:41-42 NASB20] 41 When He approached [Jerusalem,] He saw the city and wept over it, 42 saying, "If you had known on this day, even you, the [conditions] for peace! But now they have been hidden from your eyes.

[Eph 4:30 NASB20] 30 Do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, by whom you were sealed for the day of redemption.

a global flood!

- Genesis 6:7 – Then the Lord said, “I will wipe out mankind whom I have created from the face of the land; mankind, and animals as well, and crawling things, and the birds of the sky. For I am sorry that I have made them.”

[Gen 7:19 NASB20] 19 And the water prevailed more and more upon the earth, so that all the high mountains everywhere under the heavens were covered.

[Gen 7:21-23 NASB20] 21 So all creatures that moved on the earth perished: birds, livestock, animals, and every swarming thing that swarms upon the earth, and all mankind; 22 of all that was on the dry land, all in whose nostrils was the breath of the spirit of life, died. 23 So He wiped out every living thing that was upon the face of the land, from mankind to animals, to crawling things, and the birds of the sky, and they were wiped out from the earth; and only Noah was left, together with those that were with him in the ark.

Many Christians and their leaders believe that it is not relevant whether the Flood of Noah described in Genesis 6–8 was global or localized (in the Mesopotamian Valley of the Tigris and Euphrates Rivers). After all, they say, it's not relevant to a Christian's salvation, and the gospel message to be preached is all about Jesus.

Besides, matters about rocks and the earth's history are the domain of the geologists, because the Bible isn't a science textbook.

China, American Indian, Indonesia, Norway, Mexico, Such far flung nations prove it was global

Some say up to 500 stories

Furman Kearley once observed: "These traditions agree in too many vital points not to have originated from the same factual event" (1979, p. 11)

Epic of Gilgamesh; older record.? Doesn't mean it was prior in knowledge to the scriptures

Legends have been reported from nations such as China, Babylon, Mexico, Egypt, Sudan, Syria, Persia, India, Norway, Wales, Ireland, Indonesia, Romania, etc. — composing a list that could go on for many pages (see Perloff, 1999, p. 167).

Although the vast number of such legends is surprising, the similarity between much of their content is equally amazing. James Perloff noted:

In 95 percent of the more than two hundred flood legends, the flood was worldwide; in 88 percent, a certain family was favored; in 70 percent, survival was by means of a boat; in 67 percent, animals were also saved; in 66 percent, the flood was due to the wickedness of man; in 66 percent, the survivors had been forewarned; in 57 percent, they ended up on a mountain; in 35 percent, birds were sent out from the boat; and in 9 percent, exactly eight people were spared (p. 168).

7 C'S IN GOD'S ETERNAL PLAN

The Creation Museum is designed around seven pivotal events from the beginning to the end of time. As you walk through the museum, look for signs that introduce and explain the importance of each of these major events.

CREATION

In the beginning, God created the heavens and the earth.
Genesis 1:1

CORRUPTION

For we know that the whole creation groans and labors with birth pangs together until now.
Romans 8:22

CATASTROPHE

God said, "I will bring floodwaters on the earth, to destroy from under heaven all flesh..."
Genesis 6:17

CONFUSION

The Lord confused the language of all the earth and...scattered them abroad.
Genesis 11:9

CHRIST

When the fulness of the time had come, God sent forth His Son, born of a woman...
Galatians 4:4

CROSS

Christ has once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust...
1 Peter 3:18

CONSUMMATION

Death and Hades were cast into the lake of fire... And I saw a new heaven and a new earth...
Revelation 20:14, 21:1

[Luk 19:40 NASB20] 40 Jesus replied, "I tell you, if these stop speaking, the stones will cry out!"

St. Helens

Lesson One

The volcanic blast of May 18, 1980, traveling at an initial speed of over 650 miles per hour (300 m/sec.), destroyed the forests in at least the surrounding 150 square miles (390 sq. km) within six minutes!<sup>2,3,4,5</sup> Douglas firs as tall as 200 feet (61 m) were instantly stripped of their branches and snapped like toothpicks.

As the side of the volcano slid into the nearby Spirit Lake, it pushed a wave of water from the lake into the nearby forest, dragging many logs back into the lake as the surge returned. By late afternoon over one million logs were floating on the lake. Many were floating upright. Even though the roots were broken off, the bases were still thicker and denser, causing the logs to float this way.

Many logs subsequently sank to the floor of the lake, still upright but rootless. Indeed, it was estimated that about 20,000 upright, fully submerged logs were sitting on the floor of the lake by August 1985. They looked like a forest of trees buried in mud. Radar and scuba divers found that many logs had become buried by more than 3 feet (1 m) of sediment, while others were still resting on the floor of the lake.<sup>6,7</sup>

The rock was a mere ten years old, but the potassium-argon "clock" dated the rock at 350,000 years old, and minerals within the rock dated at up to 2.4 million years old.<sup>14</sup>

EVIDENCE FOR A WORLD WIDE FLOOD

Fossil of Fish Swallowing Fish. Burial and fossilization must have been quite rapid to have preserved a fish in the act of swallowing another fish. Thousands of such fossils have been found.

Rapid Burial

Fossils all over the world show evidence of rapid burial. Many fossils, such as fossilized jellyfish, show by the details of their soft, fleshy portions that they were buried rapidly, before they could decay. (Normally, dead animals and plants quickly decompose.) The presence of fossilized remains of many other animals, buried in mass graves and lying in twisted and contorted positions, suggests violent and rapid burials over large areas. These observations, together with the occurrence of compressed fossils and fossils that cut across two or more layers of sedimentary rock, are strong evidence that the sediments encasing these fossils were deposited rapidly—not over hundreds of millions of years. Furthermore, almost all sediments that formed today's rocks were sorted by water. The worldwide fossil record is, therefore, evidence of rapid death and burial of animal and plant life by a worldwide, catastrophic flood. The fossil record is not evidence of slow change

Fossils Indicate Rajasthan's Desert Was Underwater 47 Million Years Ago

The presence of the marine fossils of Middle Eocene period indicates that about 47 million years ago, there was a sea in this area according to the experts.

Did Dinosaurs know how to walk on ceilings or was there such a catastrophic turmoil of the flood that it churned the land into this?

Rocks reveal oldest known jellyfish fossils

The oldest known fossils of jellyfish have been found in rocks in Utah that are more than 500 million years old, a new study reports.

Charles Darwin predicted in Origin of Species that no jellyfish fossils would ever be found, but hundreds in a Wisconsin sandstone quarry prove him wrong.

Plants discovered nearly a MILE beneath the Greenland ice sheet suggest the area was ice-free within the last million years

- Researchers examined a 15ft core sample first dug by the US Army in the 1960s
- It contained twigs, leaves and plant fossils from a mile under the Greenland ice
- This suggests at some point in the past 1 million years Greenland was a forest
- The team say Greenland's ice sheet is 'more susceptible' to climate change than previously thought, putting every coastal city in the world at risk of flooding

Plant fossils, twigs and leaves have been discovered under a mile of ice on Greenland, suggesting the area was free of ice within the last million years.

Scientists from the University of Vermont have called it a 'stunning' discovery, with some of the discovered vegetation looking as if it had 'died yesterday'.

The discovery was made from ice core samples dug in the 1960s by US Army scientists as part of a decoy bid to disguise the location of a Cold War military base.

They drilled down through nearly a mile of ice in north west Greenland in 1966 and pulled up a 15ft long tube of dirt which was lost in a freezer until 2017.

It had to be Global

- Bible words: end of humanity, the earth, all the high mountains everywhere ... covered, all creatures ... perished, ... 'only Noah and family left' – Genesis 7:20-23
- It only makes sense! Ark unnecessary, just leave

[Gen 6:13 NASB20] 13 Then God said to Noah, "The end of humanity has come before Me; for the earth is filled with violence because of people; and behold, I am about to destroy them with the earth.

[Gen 7:19 NASB20] 19 And the water prevailed more and more upon the earth, so that all the high mountains everywhere under the heavens were covered.

[Gen 7:20-23 NASB20] 20 The water prevailed fifteen cubits higher, and the mountains were covered. 21 So all creatures that moved on the earth perished: birds, livestock, animals, and every swarming thing that swarms upon the earth, and all mankind; 22 of all that was on the dry land, all in whose nostrils was the breath of the spirit of life, died. 23 So He wiped out every living thing that was upon the face of the land, from mankind to animals, to crawling things, and the birds of the sky, and they were wiped out from the earth; and only Noah was left, together with those that were with him in the ark.

We are immediately struck with prolific usage of universal terms such as "all," "every," "under heaven," and "in whose nostrils was the breath of life."

If the Flood were only local in extent, why did Noah have to take birds on board the ark

Similarly, why would Noah need to take animals on board the ark from his local area, when other representatives of those same animal kinds would surely have survived in other, unflooded areas?

Naoh could've traveled – he had 120 years!

Abraham traversed hundreds of miles to promised land

Moses and all Israel traversed from Egypt to promised land

Think of the size of the Ark! 300 cubits long, 50 cubits wide, and 30 cubits high, or approximately 450 feet long, 75 feet wide, and 45 feet high? With these dimensions, the total volume of the ark would have been approximately 1.45 million cubic feet, and with three decks it would have had a total deck area of approximately 98,800 square feet, equivalent to slightly more than the area of 20 standard basketball courts! The gross tonnage of the ark would have been about 14,500 tons, well within the category of large metal ocean-going vessels today

The early church, before Darwin, took the scripture literally and pretty much all believed in the Literal creation and Flood

Even the renowned and theologically liberal Hebrew scholar James Barr, then Oriel Professor of the Interpretation of Holy Scripture at Oxford University in England, was prepared to admit in a letter to David C.C. Watson dated April 23, 1984:

. . . so far as I know, there is no Professor of Hebrew or Old Testament at any world-class university who does not believe that the writer(s) of Genesis 1–11 intended to convey to their readers the ideas that . . . Noah's Flood was understood to be world-wide and extinguish all human and animal life except for those in the Ark. Or to put it negatively, the apologetic arguments which suppose . . . the flood to be a merely local Mesopotamian flood are not taken seriously by any such Professors, as far as I know.<sup>6</sup>

Luke 17:26–30

2 Peter 3:3–7

In context, it is clear that Peter had to be teaching the Flood was global, because the creation of the world was global, and the future judgment by fire will also be global.

Jesus preached it so

- Luke 17:26-27 – “And just as it happened in the days of Noah, so will it also be in the days of the Son of Man: [people] were eating, ... until the day that Noah entered the ark, and the flood came and destroyed them all.” (Jesus said)

[Luk 17:26-30 NASB20] 26 "And just as it happened in the days of Noah, so will it also be in the days of the Son of Man: 27 [people] were eating, they were drinking, they were marrying, [and] they were being given in marriage, until the day that Noah entered the ark, and the flood came and destroyed them all. 28 "It was the same as happened in the days of Lot: they were eating, they were drinking, they were buying, they were selling, they were planting, [and] they were building; 29 but on the day that Lot left Sodom, it rained fire and brimstone from heaven and destroyed them all. 30 "It will be just the same on the day that the Son of Man is revealed.

[Gen 9:11-17 NASB20] 11 "I establish My covenant with you; and all flesh shall never again be eliminated by the waters of a flood, nor shall there again be a flood to destroy the earth." 12 God said, "This is the sign of the covenant which I am making between Me and you and every living creature that is with you, for all future generations; 13 I have set My rainbow in the cloud, and it shall serve as a sign of a covenant between Me and the earth. 14 "It shall come about, when I make a cloud appear over the earth, that the rainbow will be seen in the cloud, 15 and I will remember My covenant, which is between Me and you and every living creature of all flesh; and never again shall the water become a flood to destroy all flesh. 16 "When the rainbow is in the cloud, then I will look at it, to remember the everlasting covenant between God and every living creature of all flesh that is on the earth." 17 And God said to Noah, "This is the sign of the covenant which I have established between Me and all flesh that is on the earth."

- Genesis 9:11 – ‘nor shall there again be a flood to destroy the earth.’ “all flesh” vs 15

Drown animals too!

If you don't succeed? God Failed!

[Gen 3:13-14, 17-19 NASB20] 13 Then the LORD God said to the woman, "What is this [that] you have done?" And the woman said, "The serpent deceived me, and I ate." 14 Then the LORD God said to the serpent, "Because you have done this, Cursed are you more than all the livestock, And more than any animal of the field; On your belly you shall go, And dust you shall eat All the days of your life; ... 17 Then to Adam He said, "Because you have listened to the voice of your wife, and have eaten from the tree about which I commanded you, saying, 'You shall not eat from it'; Cursed is the ground because of you; With hard labor you shall eat [from] it All the days of your life. 18 "Both thorns and thistles it shall grow for you; Yet you shall eat the plants of the field; 19 By the sweat of your face You shall eat bread, Until you return to the ground, Because from it you were taken; For you are dust, And to dust you shall return."

[Rom 8:18-25 NASB20] 18 For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy [to be] compared with the glory that is to be revealed to us. 19 For the eagerly awaiting creation waits for the revealing of the sons [and daughters] of God. 20 For the creation was subjected to futility, not willingly, but because of Him who subjected [it,] in hope 21 that the creation itself also will be set free from its slavery to corruption into the freedom of the glory of the children of God. 22 For we know that the whole creation groans and suffers the pains of childbirth together until now. 23 And not only [that,] but also we ourselves, having the first fruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting eagerly for [our] adoption as sons [and daughters,] the redemption of our body. 24 For in hope we have been saved, but hope that is seen is not hope; for who hopes for what he [already] sees? 25 But if we hope for what we do not see, through perseverance we wait eagerly [for it.]

[Hos 4:3 NASB20] 3 Therefore the land mourns, And everyone who lives in it languishes Along with the animals of the field and the birds of the sky, And even the fish of the sea disappear.

[Joe 1:18 NASB20] 18 How the animals have groaned! The herds of cattle have wandered aimlessly Because there is no pasture for them; Even the flocks of sheep have suffered.

[Isa 11:6-9 NASB20] 6 And the wolf will dwell with the lamb, And the leopard will lie down with the young goat, And the calf and the young lion and the fattened steer [will be] together; And a little boy will lead them. 7 Also the cow and the bear will graze, Their young will lie down together, And the lion will eat straw like the ox. 8 The nursing child will play by the hole of the cobra, And the weaned child will put his hand on the viper's den. 9 They will not hurt or destroy in all My holy mountain, For the earth will be full of the knowledge of the LORD As the waters cover the sea.

[Isa 65:25 NASB20] 25 "The wolf and the lamb will graze together, and the lion will eat straw like the ox; and dust will be the serpent's food. They will do no evil or harm on all My holy mountain," says the LORD.

[Eze 34:25 NASB20] 25 "And I will make a covenant of peace with them and eliminate harmful animals from the land, so that they may live securely in the wilderness and sleep in the woods.

[Hos 2:18 NASB20] 18 "On that day I will also make a covenant for them With the animals of the field, The birds of the sky, And the crawling things of the ground. And I will eliminate the bow, the sword, and war from the land, And will let them lie down in safety.

2Pe 3:3-14 Know this first [of all,] that in the last days mockers will come with [their] mocking, following after their own lusts, 4 and saying, "Where is the promise of His coming? For [ever] since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue just as [they were] from the beginning of creation." 5 For when they maintain this, it escapes their notice that by the word of God [the] heavens existed long ago and [the] earth was formed out of water and by water, 6 through which the world at that time was destroyed by being flooded with water. 7 But by His word the present heavens and earth are being reserved for fire, kept for the day of judgment and destruction of ungodly people. 8 But do not let this one [fact] escape your notice, beloved, that with the Lord one day is like a thousand years, and a thousand years like one day. 9 The Lord is not slow about His promise, as some count slowness, but is patient toward you, not willing for any to perish, but for all to come to repentance. 10 But the day of the Lord will come like a thief, in which the heavens will pass away with a roar and the elements will be destroyed with intense heat, and the earth and its works will be discovered. 11 Since all these things are to be destroyed in this way, what sort of people ought you to be in holy conduct and godliness, 12 looking for and hastening the coming of the day of God, because of which the heavens will be destroyed by burning, and the elements will melt with intense heat! 13 But according to His promise we are looking for new heavens and a new earth, in which righteousness dwells. 14 Therefore, beloved, since you look for these things, be diligent to be found spotless and blameless by Him, at peace,

We know a lot about the process - called clonal fragmentation - but when it began was something of a mystery. Now, a new study has described a remarkable world-first fossil that has preserved a 155-million-year-old brittle star in the process of regeneration.

"The fossil shows that fissiparity, or clonal fragmentation, dates back at least to the Late Jurassic," Curator Dr Ben Thuy of the Palaeontology Department of Muséum national d'histoire naturelle told IFLScience. "Even more exciting is the conclusion that clonal fragmentation has been linked to a sixfold body symmetry and an epizoic lifestyle, i.e., life on a host organism, from the beginning, suggesting that those features evolved together."

"This is an incredibly rare find that provides readily visible smoking-gun evidence for clonal fragmentation."

- Dr Ben Thuy

The chance find has turned out to be a pivotal fossil in our understanding of clonal fragmentation. Image credit: Gunter Schweigert

The landslide took rock and debris "uncorking" the top of the shallow lava dome releasing the pressurized body of magma allowing it to explode violently to the north. The lateral blast caused a horizontally directed explosion of incredible magnitude. The expanding cloud of rock, ash and gases moved hundred miles per hour destroying 230 square miles, killing every living thing and destroying hundreds of acres of virgin forest. The landslide temporarily displaced all the water in Spirit Lake sending 600-foot-high waves crashing into a ridge north of the lake, adding 295 feet of new avalanche debris above the old lakebed, and raising its surface level by about 200 feet.
