

Teach Us To Pray: Studying the Lord's Prayer Week 6: Worship

Review: Protection

“Do not lead us into temptation, but deliver us from evil. (Matthew 6:13)

eisphero – to bring into rhoumai – to rescue from

We are asking God to:

Not bring us towards that which would result in sin

Rescue us from the actions of the enemy

Discussion Questions:

Which phrase of the Lord's Prayer stands out as the most meaningful in your life right now? Why?

What is your primary motivation to worship God?

Week 6 – Worship

Several manuscripts of Matthew include an additional phrase known as a doxology to conclude the Lord's Prayer. It is listed as a footnote in the ESV:

“For Yours is the kingdom, the power, and the glory forever. Amen.” (Matthew 6:13 note ESV)

Doxology – a “word” of “glory” (cf. 1 Chronicles 29)

Key word: “_____” = Because, as a result of, the reason why

Concluding a prayer in this way confirms:

Our need for _____

Our recognition of _____

Implications of praying the doxology:

Kingdom

We want his Kingdom, _____ (Hebrews 12:25-29)

His Kingdom _____ and _____ (Luke 17:20-21)

His Kingdom will be _____ (Colossians 1:13-14)

Power

We want his power, _____ (Daniel 4:34-35)

His power _____ and _____ (1 Corinthians 1:18-2:4)

His power will accomplish what is _____ (Acts 1:8)

Glory

We want his glory, _____ (2 Peter 1:3-4)

His glory _____ and _____ (Hebrews 1:1-4)

His glory will result from _____ (2 Corinthians 4:1-6)

Takeaway: Our worship is built on the reality of _____.
