BREAKTHROUGH (Part 4)

I will make them and the places all around MY HILL, A BLESSING; and I will cause showers to come down in their season; there shall be showers of blessing.

- Ezekiel 34:26

Families are encouraged to gather each day, read the devotion, pray and partake of communion

Senior Elders:

Pastor Ralph and Michelle Ellaya

Break forth

Isaiah 58:8 (NKJV)

8 Then your light shall break forth like the morning, Your healing shall spring forth speedily,

Your light to breaking forth like the morning is an indication of breakthrough. Getting healed speedily is a breakthrough but it has prerequisites. Isaiah 58 is not about physical fasting but a fasted life. We must endeavor to lead a fasted life to have breakthroughs

Pray:

1. For a shift from just fasting to a fasted life
2. That our breakthroughs would be founded on a life that is dedicated to the purposes of God
3. For our lives to testify of great spiritual discipline

Relief

Isaiah 58:6 (NKJV) 6 “Is this not the fast that I have chosen:

Isaiah 58:7 Is it not to share your bread with the hungry,

And that you bring to your house the poor who are cast out;

The fast that God is looking for that will cause our light to break forth is to share our bread with the hungry and to take care of the poor. This is the responsibility of all believers and not just the social department of a local church.

Pray:

1. That we would use our prosperity to take care of the poor
2. For fasting to be evident through good works
3. That social relief will be a family responsibility

Extend your soul

Isaiah 58:6 (NKJV) 6 “Is this not the fast that I have chosen:

Isaiah 58: 10 If you extend your soul to the hungry And satisfy the afflicted soul,

A fasted life is one of extending ourselves. This is a demand to go beyond the ordinary. We are to extend ourselves to the afflicted soul. This is the soul that is emotionally broken and is afflicted with depression. We are called to heal the broken hearted.

Pray:

1. That we would extend ourselves as a testimony of a fasted life
2. For wisdom to deal with the afflicted soul
3. That we would make a greater effort to satisfy the afflicted soul

Accusations

Isaiah 58:6 (NKJV) 6 “Is this not the fast that I have chosen:

Isaiah 58:9 ...‘If you take away the yoke from your midst,

The pointing of the finger,

The pointing finger is one of accusation or to be an accuser of the brethren. Breakthroughs will be on hold because we have a pointing finger. The fasted life is one of taking away or removing the pointing finger. We must not receive accusations without witnesses.

Pray:

1. That we would not be privy to false accusations
2. For grace to remove the pointing finger
3. For restraint in accusing others

Knock down yokes

Isaiah 58:6 (NKJV) 6 “Is this not the fast that I have chosen:

Isaiah 58:6 “Is this not the fast that I have chosen: To loose the bonds of wickedness, To undo the heavy burdens, To let the oppressed go free, And that you break every yoke?

We must become yoke breakers. A fasted life is about losing the bonds and breaking every yoke. We can loose the bonds by paying the debt of someone. We can break yokes through the anointing.

Pray:

1. That we will have breakthroughs as we become yoke breakers
2. For grace to loose the bonds of others
3. That the anointing will function through us to break yokes

Speaking wickedness

Isaiah 58:9 (NKJV) 9 Then you shall call, and the LORD will answer; 'If you take away the yoke from your midst, ... and speaking wickedness,

Our speech is a key to having breakthroughs. Because we speak wickedly and without restraint we have what we say. We must learn to speak with wisdom so that we do not cancel our harvest

Pray:

1. For a restrained tongue
2. That we would refrain from speaking wickedly and destroying our harvest
3. That our wise words and not wicked words would testify of a fasted life
