

Prophetic Word

Sunday, November 26, 2023

10:30 AM Service | Grace Fellowship Church

Tongues and Interpretation

Speaker / Interpreter: Pastor Dale Campbell

"For need I remind you, says the Lord, that you are moving forward, yes, and upward. And even as this has been declared the year of greater things, oh, to move into those things there will be opposition. There will be battles. And I just remind you today that some of the things you've experienced, even this week, they're just growing pains. They're just the things associated with where you are going. Hallelujah!

You're moving upward. You're moving forward. And, yeah, the enemy has taken note. And he's noticed the things happening in your family. And he's noticed the things happening in you personally. But don't be worried, I am on top of it, saith the Lord! I've got it, saith the Lord! I have the power. I have given you the Spirit and provided you everything needed to walk forward into the year coming up! And, oh, if you think this has been the year of greater things, you've not even begun to imagine the things I have in store for you yet.

But, oh, begin to seek Me and seek My will. And don't allow the little disruptions of the enemy to sway you off course. I'll keep you on course. I'll take you forward. I'll help you with every battle. I will fight the enemy as you cooperate with Me, saith the Lord!"