Race Running Wisdom

1. Introduction:
  - a. Running a race has a starting line and a finish line.
  - b. The Christian life is at time likened to running a race.
  - c. That prompts two questions:
    - 1) Are you ready to cross the finish line of this life?
    - 2) What kind of race as a Christian are you running?
2. Some much-needed background:
  - a. Hebrews 11:

    - 2) Hebrews 11:33-40 –

    - 1) “let us” – there it is again!!!!
    - 2) “patience” – cheerful, hopeful, endurance, constant, steadfast, perseverance.
      - a) This word references the spirit and faith, the tenacity to not sit back and put up with the trials of life but it is the spirit that stands up faces the trials, goes forward walking in the victory that you already have in Christ.
    - 3) “race that is before us” –

- a) “race” – this race is a life not a sprint.
