Who is this baby in the manger? Jesus - Prophet, Priest and King

1. Introduction:

a. Taking a look back:

1) Important for every believer to see the Bible as one Interdependent Revelation of God.

b. Taking a look ahead:

1) Jesus Christ – The most important figure we can ever look to in history.

2) Our only hope was in someone who could satisfy the holy righteous demands of God.

3) The Deliverer – Jesus Christ – Prophet, Priest and King.

2. Jesus as Prophet: Deuteronomy 18:15

a. When did this happen?

1) Moses said in verse 15 –

2) Acts 3:19-26 –

b. You have read this I am sure:

1) Do you remember some of Jesus' conversations with the disciples?

2) What about parables?

c. Application – Jesus speaks the truth!

1) There was a test mentioned in Deuteronomy 18:20-22

3. Jesus as our High Priest:

a. An important truth revealed:

1) Jesus went into the presence of God for us!

b. Jesus became the God Man:

1) When Jesus became man – Philippians 2:7

2) Jesus did not need to offer a sin offering for Himself.

3) Jesus did have to offer a sin offering for the world. He is that sin offering.

4) I John 2:1-2 –

c. Jesus' present work includes being a Mediator between God and man:

1) What is a mediator?

2) I Timothy 2:1-6 –

3) Application – Praying for lost – How long does it take? Does it work?

a) Does it impact my heart or thinking knowing that it is God's desire that all men be saved?

4) How is it possible that prayer works?

5) How is it possible that people can be made right with God?

6) Without a Mediator, man could not have fellowship with God.

d. Jesus' present work includes being an Advocate:

1) I John 2:1-2 – Jesus is described as the "advocate" and "righteous".

- 2) This has to do with sin in the believer's life.
- 3) Do you have to sin?
- 4) Here is what I want you to see –
 - a) Proverbs 10:17 –
4. Jesus as King:
 - a. That which is to come. What a day that will be!!!
5. Today's Take Away:
 - a. Jesus speaks the truth about everything.
 - b. Having a Mediator means we have access to speak with God.
 - c. "If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed." John 8:36
