

The Acts of the Apostles

The Growth and Expansion of the Church in Jerusalem

Parenthesis: Speaking in Tongues (1)

The Power to Speak in Tongues (1)

Tongues in the Book of Acts

1. Tongues in Acts 2 - Human Communication
 - A. A Simultaneous Experience to Being Baptized with the Holy Spirit
 - B. A Consequence of Being Filled
 - 1) The Fact of the Connection
 - utterance speech of prophets; speech of philosophers or oracles
 - 2) The Result of the Connection
 - tongues glossia - the organ of taste, a human language, a strange obscure utterance
 - language dialektos - a language of a nation or a region; a dialect
 - C. An Expression of Human Languages
 - 1) Revealed through Luke's Vocabulary
 - 2) Revealed through the Multitude's Confession
2. Tongues in the Rest of Acts - A Sign
 - A. The Illustration of Acts 10
 - B. The Need for a Sign

Tongues in 1 Corinthians 12-14

1. The Purpose of This Division
 - A. The Place of This Division in 1 Corinthians
 - B. The Concern of This Division
 - spiritual (pneumatikos) spiritual thing or spiritual person