Courageous Faith for Crazy Times – Week #3

INTRO:

Pastor Jeff and the band finished up the message this week with a song called “Do It Again”. Read the lyrics together or find it online and listen to it if you have access to do so. Feel free to sing along! What lines or phrases resonate with you the most?

Do It Again – Elevation Worship

Walking around these walls
I thought by now they'd fall
But You have never failed me yet
Waiting for change to come
Knowing the battle's won
For You have never failed me yet

Your promise still stands
Great is Your faithfulness, faithfulness
I'm still in Your hands
This is my confidence, You've never failed me yet

I know the night won't last
Your Word will come to pass
My heart will sing Your praise again
Jesus, You're still enough
Keep me within Your love
My heart will sing Your praise again

Your promise still stands
Great is Your faithfulness, faithfulness
I'm still in Your hands
This is my confidence, You never failed

Your promise still stands
Great is Your faithfulness, faithfulness
I'm still in Your hands
This is my confidence, You never failed me yet

DIVE IN:

Everyone is walking through a fire of some kind... Maybe it's a huge burning furnace, maybe it's just a small nagging flame. We're all in a fire of some kind though...

Pastor Jeff discussed about the fires that you may be in right now. Maybe it's collateral damage, or self-inflicted, or maybe you're living out the difficult consequences of a bold faith decision.

This is a bold step to take, but as you feel led to share the fire you are in now, share it with your group.

What are you walking through now? This is a time for your group to be a blessing to you by sharing your burdens and walking through fires together with one another. After someone shares, let the other group members come around and pray for them. This is a time great time to really minister to one another and offer encouragement, support, love, and grace within your group and to welcome The Holy Spirit to move among your group as well.
