What Is True Wealth?

Intro: Jesus challenges both the greed that comes from having much and the anxiety that comes from having little, pointing us instead toward a life of trust, generosity, simplicity, and deeper dependence on God.

Story: When has trusting God given you a kind of peace that money or possessions couldn't give you?

Read: Luke 12:13-34

1. Jesus addresses both greed and anxiety in Luke 12. How can these two responses to money look different on the surface while having the same underlying problem?
2. When have you experienced a time when God provided for you (or taught you to trust Him) even though your circumstances didn't change the way you wanted?
3. Have you ever given something away and discovered that you felt more free afterward? What did that experience teach you about possessions?
4. Read Psalm 147. How does this picture of God affect the way you respond when you don't have enough or when life feels out of control?
5. What is one practical way you could give your money, your anxiety, or your possessions to God this week? What would it look like to actually take that step?

Pray:

- For freedom from greed.
- For freedom from anxiety.
- Opportunities to be generous.
