The Church Worships Together

Intro: Worship is far more than singing on Sunday—it is our whole-life response to who God is and what He has done, expressed through praise, thanksgiving, lament, repentance, surrender, awe, intercession, and obedience. Because God is worthy regardless of our circumstances or emotions. Genuine worship follows us beyond Sunday into our homes, relationships, work, and everyday decisions, grounded in the mercy we have received through Jesus.

Story: Tell about how you best experience God in worship.

Read: Romans 12:1-2

1. Romans 12:1 describes worship as presenting our whole lives to God. What part of your life is hardest for you to see as an act of worship? Why?
2. Which of the different expressions of worship—praise, thanksgiving, lament, repentance, surrender, awe, intercession, or obedience—comes most naturally to you? Which is most difficult?
3. It was said that “the real test of Sunday worship is Monday obedience.” What might that look like practically in your work, family, relationships, or private life?
4. Read 2 Samuel 24. David was unwilling to worship with something that cost him nothing. What might it look like for your worship to cost you something?
5. Where do you think God is inviting you to worship Him differently right now? Is that through praise, thanksgiving, lament, repentance, surrender, awe, intercession, or obedience?

Pray:

- That every aspect of your life would be given in worship.
- For unity in our corporate worship.
- For your oikos to get to experience the presence of God.
