

Summary

The sermon concludes the 'Waymaker' series, focusing on how God makes a way to freedom through Jesus Christ. It emphasizes that God provides spiritual freedom from sin, guilt, and shame, and offers a fulfilling life in relationship with Him. The sermon highlights that this freedom is not about worldly possessions but about living a life of righteousness and purpose through Jesus. It encourages believers to embrace this freedom and live a life that glorifies God, free from the burdens of sin and shame.

Intro Prayer

Heavenly Father, we thank You for bringing us together today. We ask that You open our hearts and minds to receive Your word and understand the freedom You offer us through Jesus. Help us to be receptive to Your guidance and to embrace the spiritual freedom You provide. In Jesus' name, we pray. Amen.

Ice Breaker

What is one thing you are looking forward to during the Christmas break?

Key Verses

1. Deuteronomy 31:8
2. Romans 6:18-19
3. 2 Corinthians 5:17
4. John 10:10
5. John 14:6

Questions

1. What does spiritual freedom mean to you?
2. How can we experience freedom from sin in our daily lives?
3. In what ways does guilt and shame affect our relationship with God?
4. How can we live a life of righteous living as described in the sermon?
5. What are some practical ways to share God's love with others?
6. How does knowing the truth of God's word set us free?
7. What is holding you back from fully embracing the freedom God offers?

Life Application

This week, identify one area in your life where you feel burdened by guilt or shame. Pray and ask God to help you release it and walk in the freedom He offers through Jesus.

Key Takeaways

1. God provides freedom from sin, guilt, and shame through Jesus.
2. Spiritual freedom is about living a life of righteousness and purpose.
3. God's freedom is everlasting and cannot be taken away.
4. Knowing God's truth sets us free from the enemy's lies.
5. Living in freedom allows us to love and serve others as Jesus did.

Ending Prayer

Lord, we thank You for the freedom You have given us through Jesus. Help us to walk in this freedom daily, free from the chains of sin and shame. May we live lives that glorify You and share Your love with others. Guide us as we seek to know Your truth and live in Your grace. In Jesus' name, we pray. Amen.