

Abraham- Determining the Relationship

Genesis 22:1-18

God's promises happen in God's timing and God's way.

The waiting period is a breeding ground for great growth.

God's promises will always glorify His name.

Big Idea: Faith trusts God's promises even when God's plan is difficult to understand because God's provision is always greater than we can see.

1. Faith obeys even when it doesn't understand

Some time later, God tested Abraham's faith. "Abraham!" God called.

"Yes," he replied. "Here I am."

² "Take your son, your only son—yes, Isaac, whom you love so much—and go to the land of Moriah. Go and sacrifice him as a burnt offering on one of the mountains, which I will show you."

³ The next morning Abraham got up early. He saddled his donkey and took two of his servants with him, along with his son, Isaac. Then he chopped wood for a fire for a burnt offering and set out for the place God had told him about.

Genesis 22:1-3

How often do we delay obedience because we don't understand?

Abraham trusted God's character even when he couldn't understand God's plan.

But for so many of us, we are waiting for the detailed plan, and we fail to trust God's character.

2. Faith reveals what holds first place in our hearts.

⁴ On the third day of their journey, Abraham looked up and saw the place in the distance. ⁵ "Stay here with the donkey," Abraham told the servants. "The boy and I will travel a little farther. We will worship there, and then we will come right back."

⁶ So Abraham placed the wood for the burnt offering on Isaac's shoulders, while he himself carried the fire and the knife. As the two of them walked on together,

Genesis 22:4-6

This is the first time the word worship appears in Scripture.

God is always concerned with what occupies the top spot in our hearts.

But even good gifts become dangerous when they take God's place.

We can't be made whole if something other than God is our top priority.

Charles Spurgeon once said:

"I cannot imagine a greater test than that which the Lord applied to Abraham."

3. Faith sees God's provision.

⁷ Isaac turned to Abraham and said, “Father?”

“Yes, my son?” Abraham replied.

“We have the fire and the wood,” the boy said, “but where is the sheep for the burnt offering?”

⁸ “God will provide a sheep for the burnt offering, my son,” Abraham answered. And they both walked on together.

⁹ When they arrived at the place where God had told him to go, Abraham built an altar and arranged the wood on it. Then he tied his son, Isaac, and laid him on the altar on top of the wood. ¹⁰ And Abraham picked up the knife to kill his son as a sacrifice. ¹¹ At that moment the angel of the LORD called to him from heaven, “Abraham! Abraham!”

“Yes,” Abraham replied. “Here I am!”

¹² “Don’t lay a hand on the boy!” the angel said. “Do not hurt him in any way, for now I know that you truly fear God. You have not withheld from me even your son, your only son.”

¹³ Then Abraham looked up and saw a ram caught by its horns in a thicket. So he took the ram and sacrificed it as a burnt offering in place of his son. ¹⁴ Abraham named the place Yahweh-Yireh (which means “the LORD will provide”). To this day, people still use that name as a proverb: “On the mountain of the LORD it will be provided.”

¹⁵ Then the angel of the LORD called again to Abraham from heaven. ¹⁶ “This is what the LORD says: Because you have obeyed me and have not withheld even your son, your only son, I swear by my own name that ¹⁷ I will certainly bless you. I will multiply your descendants^[a] beyond number, like the stars in the sky and the sand on the seashore. Your descendants will conquer the cities of their enemies. ¹⁸ And through your descendants all the nations of the earth will be blessed—all because you have obeyed me.”

Genesis 22:7-18

The provision had been there all along.

God's provisions are always on time and always enough.

It was Abraham's obedience that positioned him to see God's provision.

How many times have we missed the provisions because we didn't take the step of faith?

4. Faith points us to Jesus.

"Behold, the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world."

John 1:29
