The Parable of the Hidden Treasure

— Mathew 13:44 —

“The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field, which a man found and covered up. Then in his joy he goes and sells all that he has and buys that field.” Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant in search of fine pearls, who, on finding one pearl of great value, went and sold all that he had and bought it.

— Mathew 13:44-46

“The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden
in a field, which a man found and covered up.
Then in his joy he goes and sells all that he
has and buys that field.”

— Mathew 13:44

"The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden
in a field, which a man found and covered up.
Then in his joy he goes and sells all that he
has and buys that field."

— Mathew 13:44

“The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field, which a man found and covered up. Then in his joy he goes and sells all that he has and buys that field.”

— Mathew 13:44

“The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden
in a field, which a man found and covered up.
Then in his joy he goes and sells all that he
has and buys that field.”

— Mathew 13:44

“The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden
in a field, which a man found and covered up.
Then in his joy he goes and sells all that he
has and buys that field.”

— Mathew 13:44

And without faith it is impossible to please him, for whoever would draw near to God must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who seek him.

— Hebrews 11:6

“The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden
in a field, which a man found and covered up.
Then in his joy he goes and sells all that he
has and buys that field.”

— Mathew 13:44

“It would seem that Our Lord finds our desires not too strong, but too weak. We are half-hearted creatures, fooling about with drink and sex and ambition when infinite joy is offered us, like an ignorant child who wants to go on making mud pies in a slum because he cannot imagine what is meant by the offer of a holiday at the sea. We are far too easily pleased.”

— C.S. Lewis | The Weight of Glory

“The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden
in a field, which a man found and covered up.
Then in his joy he goes and sells all that he
has and buys that field.”

— Mathew 13:44

“The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden
in a field, which a man found and covered up.
Then in his joy he goes and sells all that he
has and buys that field.”

— Mathew 13:44

Or do you not know that the unrighteous will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived: neither the sexually immoral, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor men who practice homosexuality, nor thieves, nor the greedy, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor swindlers will inherit the kingdom of God. And such were some of you. But you were washed, you were sanctified, you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and by the Spirit of our God.

— 1 Corinthians 6:9-11

“The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden
in a field, which a man found and covered up.
Then in his joy he goes and sells all that he
has and buys that field.”

— Mathew 13:44

The Rich Young Ruler

— Mathew 19:16-30 —

But whatever gain I had, I counted as loss for the sake of Christ. Indeed, I count everything as loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things and count them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith—that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, that by any means possible I may attain the resurrection from the dead.
