Advent 2025

The background is a complex, colorful pattern of overlapping, elongated, and irregular shapes, resembling a stained-glass window or a mosaic. The colors are rich and varied, including deep blues, greens, reds, oranges, yellows, and browns. A large, circular, metallic-looking frame is centered in the image, containing the main text. The frame has a dark, textured border. The text inside the frame is in a serif font, with the title "The Radiance of God's Glory" in a larger size and "Hebrews 1:1-4" in a smaller size below it.

The Radiance of God's Glory

Hebrews 1:1-4

“There do meet in Jesus Christ infinite highness and infinite condescension. There meet in Jesus Christ infinite justice and infinite grace. In the person of Christ do meet together infinite glory and lowest humility. In the person of Christ do meet together infinite majesty and transcendent meekness. There meet in the person of Christ the deepest reverence towards God and equality with God. There are conjoined in the person of Christ infinite worthiness of good and the greatest patience under sufferings of evil. In the person of Christ are conjoined an exceeding spirit of obedience with supreme dominion over heaven and earth. In the person of Christ are conjoined absolute sovereignty and perfect resignation. In Christ do meet together self-sufficiency and an entire trust and reliance on God.”

— Jonathan Edwards

Long ago, at many times and in many ways, God spoke to our fathers by the prophets, but in these last days he has spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed the heir of all things, through whom also he created the world. He is the radiance of the glory of God and the exact imprint of his nature, and he upholds the universe by the word of his power. After making purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high, having become as much superior to angels as the name he has inherited is more excellent than theirs.

— Hebrews 1:1–4

— Hebrews 1:1–4

For by him all things were created, in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or authorities — all things were created through him and for him.

— Hebrews 1:1–4

And every priest stands daily at his service, offering repeatedly the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins. But when Christ had offered for all time a single sacrifice for sins, he sat down at the right hand of God, waiting from that time until his enemies should be made a footstool for his feet.

that you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance in the saints

— Ephesians 1:18

The background of the image is a circular stained glass window. The central part of the window is a large, bright, circular pane with a light, textured, and slightly mottled appearance. This central pane is surrounded by a dark, possibly black or very dark blue, circular border. Outside this border, the stained glass continues with various colored panes in shades of red, orange, yellow, green, and blue, arranged in a geometric pattern. The overall effect is that of looking through a church window with a large central light source.

The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs — heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ, provided we suffer with him in order that we may also be glorified with him.
