Frequently Asked QUESTIONS

HOW SHOULD WE THINK ABOUT THE CULTURAL ISSUES OF OUR DAY?

Ephesians 5:15-18

We live in an age of unprecedented technological and cultural change. As a result, it can be alarming to see the number of traditional institutions, ideas, and values that are being attacked and redefined.

The question becomes, how should we respond to these things in a way that honors God, that is thoroughly Biblical, and that is missionally effective?

Thankfully, the New Testament was written assuming that Christians would be the minority voice in their culture and that the Gospel would always have to compete with other worldviews. Therefore, we are not left without help in our historical moment.

1 Thessalonians 5:11

We recently received this thank you letter from missionaries Ed and Leslie Schick in Poland in response to the gift we made to assist those in need in Ukraine. You may remember Ed & Leslie as our visiting missionaries for Vacation Bible School a couple years ago.

Dear Breesport Baptist Church,

Thank you for your generous gift to help with the Ukrainian Crisis. Through your gift and gifts like yours, we have been able to continue to sponsor the transportation costs of the weekly transports of humanitarian aid (typically weighing about 8000 kg). These transports are a by-faith operation from start to finish. We praise God that since the beginning of the war, He has given our team the ~~over~~ necessary funds, supplies and man-power to keep the transports going. The transports start from the Baptist Church in Białystok, Poland and are eventually dispersed through out Ukraine through a Baptist Church in Ukraine. We praise God for not ~~at~~ only the humanitarian aid, but also the exceptional impact for the Gospel these transports are making.

Additionally, we've been able to help the Zelów Baptist Church finish a remodeling project they had already started, which made them more suitable for housing refugees. We pre-purchased coal for them in anticipation of higher utility costs due to increased activity (housing refugees) as well as increasing prices. We have also sponsored smaller items like clothing and shoes for the refugees that are under our Church's care here in Warsaw.

Thank you for your support. In reality, this card is sending thank you's from a host of other people both in Ukraine and Poland.

Praise Be to God!

Edy and Leslie Schick
