Frequently Asked QUESTIONS

Is it wrong to complain to God?

Psalm 13:1-6

We live in a world where hard is common and life is frequently punctuated with sorrow. There are seasons, however, where it seems like the darkness will never lift and our heart will never know joy again.

In those times we're tempted to question if God understands, if His promises are true, and if He cares at all. What are we to do in such times? Are we allowed to give voice to those fears and complaints?

This week David, the shepherd King, will teach us to lament and how to turn complaint into praise.

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

INTERSECT 2022

Saturday September 17th from 8am to 11am

We are holding our Intersect community event on Saturday, September 17th from 8am to 11am.

Intersect is about BBC meeting the practical needs of the people, families, and organizations of our community through free acts of love and kindness.

We know that the people of our community work hard to maintain their own property, but we also know that there are some who, for whatever reason, could use a helping hand. That's what Intersect is all about.

Signup sheets for workers, prayer team, childcare and hospitality teams are on the bulletin board in the hallway.

We still have openings for projects to assist residents of Breesport, Erin and nearby areas.

WORK REQUEST FORMS MUST BE RETURNED TOMORROW!

Brochures and Work Request Forms can be found at the Welcome Center, on the bulletin board and on our website at www.breesport.org/intersect

LEGACY

What is the true measure of a life?

Join us next week for a 12 week preaching series as we examine the life of David. David is a complicated figure because he did terrible things and yet he is described as a "man after God's own heart." How can one man be capable of such duality? The fact is, we all are. It's equally true that our capacity for good and bad shapes our life and legacy. This series is intended to help us live a life that leaves a godly legacy.
