Frequently Asked QUESTIONS

IS CREMATION BIBLICALLY PERMISSABLE?

1 Corinthians 6:18-20

Death is one of the subjects that most people find uncomfortable and would rather avoid discussing even though it is common to the human experience.

This week we will walk through the very personal issue concerning what we are to do after death has occurred. Does the Bible prescribe burial or is cremation permissible? Does the body that God has given us have value after death or only in life? What can we do in the present knowing that, at some point in the future, we will all cross that bridge into eternity?

The apostle Paul speaks of wanting to glorify God whether by life or by death (Philippians 1:20). I pray that is our desire as well.

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

Breesport Baptist Church exists to glorify God by making more and better disciples of Christ

NEXT STEPS

Whether you're a first time guest or a regular attender, we want you to know what your next steps are here at Breesport Baptist Church. Please visit the Welcome Center in the front foyer or the church website, if you want additional information.

Salvation - if you've never believed in Jesus for the forgiveness of your sins, that's your next step today. See pastor Doug if you have questions about this.

Baptism - if you're a Christian, but you've never been baptized, that's your next step. Please see pastor Doug today or contact him at dforman@Breesport.org.

Connect to a Life Group - our Life Groups are small gatherings of 8-12 individuals who meet for about 90 minutes each week. Contact pastor Mike at mharris@Breesport.org if you're interested.

Grow - we have lots of opportunities for you to grow in your understanding and application of the Bible to your life from Sunday School to Wednesday Evening.

Serve - there are a number of ways that you can get involved to serve others inside and outside the church. See pastor Mike if you'd like to be a part of a ministry team.

Multiply - every believer needs to be on mission all the time. If you'd like to know how you can more effectively live on mission please contact pastor Doug.
