SECOND ALTARS · PART 2

False Foundations

Jeremiah 10:1–16

OPENING

"Whatever controls us is our _____." — Timothy Keller

BACKGROUND

Jeremiah prophesied during Judah's final decades before the _____ exile.

The nations relied on idols, military _____, and political _____.

People _____ an object and then ask it to _____ them.

I. Refuse the _____ — Jeremiah 10:2

"Do not learn the _____ of the nations."

- Fear can make us _____ the world. — 1 Samuel 8:5–7
- Fear is overcome by _____ God. — Isaiah 41:10

II. Reveal the _____ — Jeremiah 10:3

"The customs of the peoples are _____."

- Idols cannot _____ or _____. — Psalm 115:4–8
- Idols cannot _____ their worshipers. — Isaiah 46:1–4

III. Rely on the _____ — Jeremiah 10:6

"There is none like You, O _____."

- God alone is the true _____. — Psalm 47:7–8
- God alone _____ our needs. — Philippians 4:19

CONCLUSION

Examine the _____ of your life.

The living God is not _____ by His people; He _____ His people.

"Blessed is the man who _____ in Yahweh and whose trust is Yahweh." — Jeremiah 17:7

REFLECT THIS WEEK

What am I tempted to trust instead of God?

_____

_____

_____

SECOND ALTARS · PART 2

False Foundations

Jeremiah 10:1–16

OPENING

"Whatever controls us is our _____." — Timothy Keller

BACKGROUND

Jeremiah prophesied during Judah's final decades before the _____ exile.

The nations relied on idols, military _____, and political _____.

People _____ an object and then ask it to _____ them.

I. Refuse the _____ — Jeremiah 10:2

"Do not learn the _____ of the nations."

- Fear can make us _____ the world. — 1 Samuel 8:5–7
- Fear is overcome by _____ God. — Isaiah 41:10

II. Reveal the _____ — Jeremiah 10:3

"The customs of the peoples are _____."

- Idols cannot _____ or _____. — Psalm 115:4–8
- Idols cannot _____ their worshipers. — Isaiah 46:1–4

III. Rely on the _____ — Jeremiah 10:6

"There is none like You, O _____."

- God alone is the true _____. — Psalm 47:7–8
- God alone _____ our needs. — Philippians 4:19

CONCLUSION

Examine the _____ of your life.

The living God is not _____ by His people; He _____ His people.

"Blessed is the man who _____ in Yahweh and whose trust is Yahweh." — Jeremiah 17:7

REFLECT THIS WEEK

What am I tempted to trust instead of God?

_____

_____

_____