*CALL TO WORSHIP

L: We gather, as God's people, bringing our fears and pain,
knowing that when our spirits have grown cold,

P: God rekindles the gift of faith in us.

L: We gather, as God's people, hanging our broken hearts on the branches of the tree of life
knowing that while friends may turn against us,

P: God transforms enemies into sisters and brothers.

L: We gather, as God's people, hungering for healing and hope,
knowing that even when life is no picnic,

P: God prepares a feast for us.

2nd Timothy 1:6-10

⁶ Because of this, I'm reminding you to revive God's gift that is in you through the laying on of my hands. ⁷ God didn't give us a spirit that is timid but one that is powerful, loving, and self-controlled.

⁸ So don't be ashamed of the testimony about the Lord or of me, his prisoner. Instead, share the suffering for the good news, depending on God's power. ⁹ God is the one who saved and called us with a holy calling. This wasn't based on what we have done, but it was based on his own purpose and grace that he gave us in Christ Jesus before time began. ¹⁰ Now his grace is revealed through the appearance of our savior, Christ Jesus. He destroyed death and brought life and immortality into clear focus through the good news.

Ho'ike Pono Series

In 1893, the Hawaiian Monarchy was illegally overthrown by a group of businessmen, descendants of missionaries, and soldiers from the United States. Rev. Harcourt W. Peck was part of the armed militia that led the attack and imprisoned the reigning Queen Lili'uokalani. He went on to re-establish First Methodist Episcopal Church in Honolulu. As an Act of Repentance, the Hawaii District is hosting a series of conversations about how we can participate in the healing of our islands. The first session is on TODAY, October 2 at 4 p.m. HST on Zoom. We will view and discuss the MFSA webinar on the "Doctrine of Discovery" and how it relates to Native Hawaiians and our task of repentance. Register at <https://bit.ly/3AOAe9q>.

Keep The Faith: Coffee Detour

Tomorrow, October 3 from 7-8 am we will be providing free coffee to commuters in our parking lot. Just a little bit of aloha on a Monday morning! Volunteers are needed. See Susan G-C or Doreen for info.
