SCRIPTURE READING liturgist

Romans 12:9-18

<sup>9</sup> Love should be shown without pretending. Hate evil, and hold on to what is good. <sup>10</sup> Love each other like the members of your family. Be the best at showing honor to each other. <sup>11</sup> Don’t hesitate to be enthusiastic—be on fire in the Spirit as you serve the Lord! <sup>12</sup> Be happy in your hope, stand your ground when you’re in trouble, and devote yourselves to prayer. <sup>13</sup> Contribute to the needs of God’s people, and welcome strangers into your home. <sup>14</sup> Bless people who harass you—bless and don’t curse them. <sup>15</sup> Be happy with those who are happy, and cry with those who are crying. <sup>16</sup> Consider everyone as equal, and don’t think that you’re better than anyone else. Instead, associate with people who have no status. Don’t think that you’re so smart. <sup>17</sup> Don’t pay back anyone for their evil actions with evil actions, but show respect for what everyone else believes is good. <sup>18</sup> If possible, to the best of your ability, live at peace with all people.

Wednesday Bible Study on ZOOM: All are welcome to join us for Bible Study on Wednesdays at 5 p.m. where we'll consider, wrestle with, and find new meaning in six Gospel stories about the miracles of Jesus – what they meant for witnesses, in history, and today. Following the book "Signs and Wonders" by Amy-Jill Levine.

CHURCH WORKDAY... NEW DATE! We are moving our workday to Saturday, September 24, 8:30 to 11:30 am. Please come and help us sort through our storage and clean out our closets! See Jo Ann for more details.

The Special Offering this month will go to Beacon of Hope House a transition house for women released from the Women's Community Correctional Center. The vision of Beacon of Hope House is not only to help parolees make their transition into the community, but also to serve as a teaching model to be replicated by other churches. The name, Beacon of Hope, comes from two streams of light. The first beacon of hope flows from a loving home of transition for women parolees who need a refuge to go to upon their release from the correctional center. It makes such a difference for women to know that a place exists for them, when they cannot return to situations that hinder a new life. A second ray of hope goes forth with the women who carry this love and dedicate themselves to be beacons of hope wherever they go. Thank you for your generosity.

Prayer Requests may be made in-person with the prayer request slips at the sign-in table or by texting Pastor Amy at 808-561-2260.
