

EXPECT GOOD

Expect – To believe that something WILL HAPPEN!

Looking forward to something likely to be or is planned to be.

To wait for or anticipate the ARRIVAL of something.

For us who trust in God, to expect goes far beyond a casual assumption, but rather a hopeful anticipation for God to perform what He promised for us in our lives, both now and later.

Expectation includes WAITING, but this form of waiting is not focused on the outcome but rather yielding to God's timing in bringing the outcome to pass.

EXPECT GOOD

The 1st book of the bible and the 1st chapter of the bible give us a definite pathway to God's performance in our lives! The earth was without form and void, but before God moved he assessed! He inventoried, established what was missing, what was needed, then He Spoke it into existence, ONE DAY AT A TIME. When God finished working, He looked back on His work and declared that EVERYTHING He had done was very good!

Emmanuel, before God moves in our lives, He's going to assess our life, see what's lacking, see what's needed, then He will get to work on it, ONE DAY AT A TIME, and when He's finished, it will be very good.

EMMANUEL, EXPECT GOOD!

EXPECT GOOD

We are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, we are an HOLY NATION, we are a peculiar people, now we are to shew forth the praises of Him who hath called us out of darkness into this marvelous light. Therefore, when we observe and do all the commandments of our God, when we walk in the precepts of God's word as He has taught us through the Holy Spirit, then all the blessings of God shall fall on us and overtake us! (Deuteronomy 28:1-14).

Emmanuel, as we lay aside all weight and sin, as we seek God's face as we have done these past 7 years, walking in perfection, desiring God to teach us His ways, now God's speaks to us and say,

EXPECT GOOD

EXPECT GOOD

When it's all over! Either when our Savior cracks that sky, or when He declares this course of life is finished, we will be able to say, we have fought a good fight, we have finished our course, we have kept the faith. Then our God will say well done thy good and faithful servant, enter into the joy of the Lord, where there will be no more suffering, no more pain, all tears shall be wiped away from our eyes, we shall live in our new mansions in glory, where our streets are made of pure gold, then shall we ever be with the Lord and reign with Him forever and ever.

Emmanuel, after all is said and done,

EXPECT GOOD
