“You have heard that it was said, ‘You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy.’ 44 But I say to you, Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, 45 so that you may be sons of your Father who is in heaven. For he makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust. 46 For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Do not even the tax collectors do the same? 47 And if you greet only your brothers, what more are you doing than others? Do not even the Gentiles do the same? 48 You therefore must be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect.

-Matthew 5:43-48

Love Your Enemies

In Matthew 5:44, Jesus tells us to love our enemies and pray for those that persecute us. That means that not only do we need to be kind to our enemies, but we also need to pray for blessing over them.

Draw a picture or write a few sentences showing what this kind of love might look like.

A large, empty rectangular box with a thin black border, intended for a drawing or written response. The box is currently blank.
