The Praise of God

+Call to Worship

The heavens open, and grace pours down.
Before we speak, God names us. Before we act, God claims us.
Jesus steps into the waters, not to prove his worth, but to receive love.
We come not to earn God's favor, but to rest in God's delight.
Come, worship the God who calls us beloved.
We come, trusting that before we begin, we are already loved.
Let us worship God.

Confessing

Call to Confession

Rev. John Hage, Senior Pastor

Prayer of Confession

Gracious God, we confess that we often live as if we must earn your love. We strive, compare, and measure ourselves, forgetting that you call us beloved before we do anything at all. We resist your grace, hesitate to trust your voice, and doubt that you truly delight in us. Forgive us, O God. Release us from fear and striving, and root us again in your deep and abiding love. By your Spirit, help us live as your beloved children. Amen.

Kyrie

Lord, have mer-cy up-on us. Christ have mer-cy up-on us. Lord, have mer-cy up-on us.

Cantor to sing first. Congregation on repeat.

Assurance of Pardon

Passing of the Peace

The Peace of Christ be with you. And also with you.

The passing of the peace is an element of worship which traditionally follows the assurance of pardon. Sharing a sign of peace signifies our reconciliation and peace with God and one another. You are invited to pass the peace in the manner that is most comfortable to you.

+Congregational Response

We Are Forgiven

Hal H. Hopson, 1995

We are forgiven. We are forgiven. Thanks be to God. Thanks be to God. (repeat)

Responding

According to the PCUSA Book of Order, the Affirmation of Faith is a response to the Word proclaimed that affirms our faith in the holy, triune God. The affirmation of faith can be drawn from a variety of sources, including Scripture, creeds, confession, catechisms, hymns, or personal testimony.

+Affirmation of Faith

The Apostles' Creed

Rev. Elizabeth H. Doolin, Assoc. Pastor

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

+Gloria

Gloria Patri

GREATOREX

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be; world without end. Amen. Amen.

Litany for Baptism of the Lord

We thank you, God, for the gift of creation called forth by your saving Word.

Before the world had shape and form, your Spirit moved over the waters.

Out of the waters of the deep, you formed the firmament and brought forth the earth to sustain all life.

In the time of Noah, you washed the earth with the waters of the flood, and your ark of salvation bore a new beginning.

In the time of Moses and Miriam your people Israel passed through the Red Sea waters from slavery to freedom and crossed the flowing Jordan to enter the promised land.

In the fullness of time you sent Jesus Christ who was nurtured in the water of Mary's womb.

Jesus was baptized by John in the waters of the Jordan, became living water to a woman at the Samaritan well, washed the feet of the disciples, and sent them forth to baptize all nations by water and the Holy Spirit.

Bless this water by your Holy Spirit, that we may be reminded of our baptism into Jesus Christ.

May we remember that we are named and claimed by our Creator, who like those went before us, calls us into beloved community, serving and sharing through the power of living water.

We remember our baptism with praise and thanksgiving.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.
