

Jesus Is The Hero Of The Whole Bible

(Song of Songs: A Test Case)

Handout

12 Components of Christ-Centered Expository Preaching

- 1) Christ-centered preaching follows a holistic hermeneutic.
 Historical → grammatical → theological → Christological
- 2) Christ-centered preaching honors the Grand Redemptive Storyline of the Bible.
 Creation → Fall → Redemption → New Creation
- 3) Christ-centered preaching follows the pattern of Jesus and the apostles revealed in the Bible.
- 4) Christ-centered preaching sees Jesus as the hero and focus of the whole Bible.
- 5) Christ-centered preaching will be rigorously theocentric/Christocentric and not Anthropocentric.
- 6) Christ-centered preaching always begins with and honors the historical-grammatical, but it does not stop there. It always includes the theological and Christological.
- 7) When interpreting the Bible, especially the Old Testament, Christ-centered preaching looks for “sweeping themes” such as redemptive promises, prophecies, types, examples, patterns, and persons that point to or anticipate Christ. This is not allegory.
- 8) Christ-centered preaching avoids the snares of moralism and legalism that promotes pride (self-righteousness) on one side and despair (self-condemnation) on the other.
- 9) Christ-centered preaching reminds us that we don’t need to be good to be saved, we need a Savior (rescuer) to be saved.
- 10) Christ-centered preaching sees Genesis 3:15 as a crucial interpretive key that unlocks the unfolding drama of redemption.
- 11) Christ-centered preaching utilizes the Fallen Condition Focus principle of Bryan Chapell (Christ-Centered Preaching) (FCF) that ask, “what is there in this text that shows man’s need that requires the grace of God (a Savior) for resolution?”
- 12) Christ-centered preaching recognizes that what we say is more important than how we say it, but how we say it has never been more important. We preach Christ, but we should proclaim Him well!

Specific Christological Themes Gleaned From The Song of Songs

- 1) There is a wonderful King whose name is above all other names (1:1-4; cf Phil. 2:9-10).
- 2) This king (1:4) is also a shepherd (1:7-8; cf. Sam 1:16-17; Ps. 23; Mic 5:2; John 10:11; Heb. 13:20; 1 Peter 5:4; Rev. 7:17) who is a King-Shepherd-Bridegroom who cares for his sheep as “the shepherd and overseer of [our]souls” (1 Peter 2:25) (1:5-14).
- 3) Our Shepherd-King gives us rest under His shadow and nourishes and sustains us with the fruit of His care (2:1-7; cf Ps. 34:8; Matt. 11:28).
- 4) Our Shepherd-King is the great seeker! He calls us to Himself with love and tenderness (2:8-17; Matt 11:28; John 6:37).
- 5) Our Shepherd-King is also the “Captain of our salvation” (Heb. 2:10) who has hunted down and defeated the “little foxes” that can destroy our lives and marriages (2:15).
- 6) Like Mary Magdalene in the garden, we should seek our King, even in times of darkness, and hold tightly to Him when we find Him (3:1-5; see John 20:1-18). also Jere. 29:13-14 and O’Donnell’s commentary on Song of Songs, p. 71).
- 7) We should long for the coming of our Shepherd-King with His armies, crowned as King of Kings and Lord of Lords (3:6-11; Rev. 19:1-21).
- 8) The love of the Shepherd-King has transformed a timid, shy and insecure woman into a beautiful, radiant bride because she is the object of His love. She has “no flaw” (4:7) because He has loved her and made her so!
- 9) In spite of our sinful and foolish rebuffs, our Shepherd-King continually seeks our presence. He stands at the door knocking, inviting His people to let Him in (5:2-8; Rev. 3:20).
- 10) There is no King like this King! 5:9-16 (which is almost apocalyptic) should be read in context with the royal wedding song of Psalm 45 and Rev. 1:13-16.
- 11) Because of the work of Christ, our Bridegroom sees us as beautiful beyond compare (7:1-9). We are His and He is ours now and forever (7:10).
- 12) Our Shepherd-King is not only our Master, Lord, Savior, and King, He is also our brother (8:1; cf Heb. 2:11-17).

- 13) Song of Solomon 8:5-14 should be taught in the context of 1 Cor. 13 and 1 John 4:7-21, the 3 great “love” texts in the Bible. The love shared between the Shepherd-King and the Bride compels her to call to him to leave the “garden” (8:13) and come to her (8:14). The Bible ends in exactly the same way as the Bride of Christ pleads with the Bridegroom to come for her (Rev. 22: 17, 20).

The Missionary Task To The Unreached:
What About Those Who Have Never Heard?
Handout

I. What is my source of authority for answering this question?

1. "I think" = intellect
2. "I feel" = emotion
3. "We've always done" = tradition
- *4. "Scripture says" = God's Word

II. What are the theological options?

- 1) Pluralism/Universalism
- 2) Inclusivism
- 3) Exclusivism

III. What does the Bible say?

- 1) Jesus
- 2) Peter
- 3) Paul

IV. Are not all religions basically the same? No.

Six points divergence between Christianity and Other World Religions

- 1) The Christian God is personal, He is Father!
- 2) Christ is Savior.
- 3) All persons are of great value in a Christian anthropology as image bearers of God.

- 4) A Christian philosophy of history has purpose and is linear;
- 5) Christian salvation is by grace through faith in Christ; virtually all other religions offer salvation by works (Torah obedience, Five Pillars of Islam, Yoga in Hinduism, Noble Eightfold Path of Buddhism).
- 6) Christian eschatology is based upon the hope of bodily resurrection; other religions offer immortality of the soul, reincarnation or nirvana.

V. Living Out Our Biblical Convictions: Marks of a Great Commission People

Romans 15:14-24

- 1) We will pursue the main thing while still doing many good things. (15:14-16)
- 2) We will focus on the nations. (15:16)
- 3) We will be Christ-centered in all that we do. (15:17-19)
- 4) We will be gospel saturated in all we do. (15:19-20)
- 5) We will be passionate for the unreached and unengaged peoples of the world. (15:20-23).
- 6) We will do our part in helping those whom God sends to hard places. (15:24)

VI. Some Practical Questions to Consider For Our Families

- Do I model Great Commission Christianity before my children and grandchildren?
- Do I pray that God would call my children and grandchildren to be international missionaries?
- Do I have a missions saving account for my children/grandchildren?

- Do I have the work of my Lord in my will whereby I can make my single largest gift to the Lord's work at my death?
- Am I generous, even sacrificial, in giving to my church, in the area of missions?
- Have I adopted an unreached people group internationally and here in North America?
- Have I gone on a short term trip to see just how lost the world is?
- Am I involved in church planting?
- Do I pray regularly for the nations?
- Do I have a passport?!