While waiting for the Lion, a Lamb stood in the midst of the elders and then took the scroll and sat on the throne. Then there is a proclamation, Worthy is the Lamb who was slain to receive power and riches, and wisdom, and strength and honor and glory and blessing. Why was the Lamb worthy to open the scroll?

What does this tell us about our priorities in life or excuses we might make that hold up our serving?

APPLICATION QUESTIONS

righteousness
For His name's sake.*
