PRELUDE Carol Soles

CALL TO WORSHIP Mark Hill

To know the warmth of love,
To have the assurance that someone cares,
To be confident of our worth,
To be bold to love in return,
To be washed over with grace,
To be accepted as we are:
This is to know a bit of God.
Then let us worship our God.

CHORAL WORSHIP Majesty Fettke

Majesty, worship His majesty;
Unto Jesus be all glory, and honor, and praise;
Majesty, kingdom authority, Flow from His throne unto His own; His anthem raise.
So exalt, lift up on high the name of Jesus;
Magnify, come glorify Christ Jesus the King.
Majesty, worship His majesty;
Jesus who died, now glorified, King of all Kings.
He is Lord, lift up His name, the name of Jesus.
He is risen from the dead, and He is Lord.
Holy, Holy, Holy! Lord God Almighty!
Early in the morning our song shall rise to Thee;
Holy, Holy, Holy! Merciful and Mighty!
God in Three Persons, blessed Trinity!
Majesty, worship His majesty;
Jesus who died, now glorified, King of all Kings.
Jesus who died, now glorified, King of all Kings.

OUR RESPONSE Glory Be to the Father GLORIA PATRI

POSTLUDE Carol Soles

†Those who are able please stand.

As we begin our sermon series on Revelation, did you know there are five major approaches or methods for interpreting this book that have been used by readers through the years? Those methods include...

1. The Futurist Method...sees Revelation as primarily an unfulfilled prophecy that deals with events at the end of time. The events of Revelation have not been completely fulfilled and are approaching by the day.
2. The Continuous-Historical Method...sees Revelation as telling the on-going cyclical history of the church with periods of trial and triumph. Revelation speaks to the Church at any season.
3. The Philosophy of History Method...sees Revelation as primarily a guide for understanding the ways that God works in and through human history and how God's principles of authority can be seen in any age of history.
4. The Preterist Method...sees Revelation as having been fulfilled almost exclusively during the days of the Roman Empire and has little, if any, unfulfilled prophecy remaining. It can be gleaned and studied as history with lessons that can still speak today.
5. The Historical-Background Method...sees Revelation as having primary meaning and significance for the Christians and churches that first receive it in the late first and early second centuries. John's immediate audience gained the most from Revelation.

The Angel Tree Ministry Team is encouraging our church to gather food throughout the year for our adopted families at Christmas. We will be emphasizing items each month that we can collect in advance. The items for September are can vegetables. As you shop for groceries, look for good buys on can vegetables and bring them to the church.

Last year, our college students were overwhelmed with gratitude and mentioned often how wonderful it was to receive the support from their church family with the greeting card they received. First Baptist is amazing at things like this, so thank you!

Welcome to Kannapolis First Baptist Church!

We are so grateful to God for leading you to this place of worship today. If you are a guest, be sure to sign our fellowship pads as they are shared during the worship time or our guest book in the foyer of the church as you leave so that we might have the opportunity to thank you personally for worshipping with us today.
