

Vocation: God Is Calling

Exodus 31,35-38

Pastor Tony Shen | Del Rey Church

Introduction: Back to the Beginning

Reviewing God's work and ours (Gen. 1-3)

Cain and Abel's work (Gen. 4)

Noah: "rest" and work (Gen. 5:29)

The Exodus: God Calls Workers for His Glory

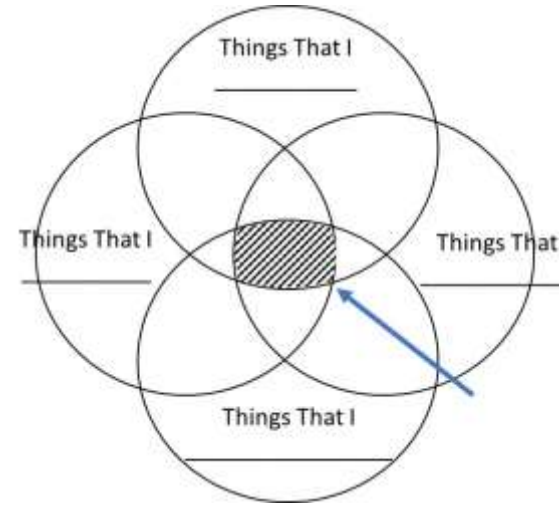

God calls His chosen people out of Egypt (Ex. 1-15)

God commissions the Tabernacle (Ex. 25-30)

God gives workers skills and understanding to build (Ex. 31)

God's commands are obeyed to the letter (Ex. 35-38)

Vocation: God Calls Us to Our Work

Conclusion: Heeding God's Call

QUESTIONS FOR REFLECTION

You † Your Family † Your Friends † Your Community Group

1. Icebreaker: how has work been for you lately?
2. In the Exodus account of building the tabernacle, how would you feel to be Bezalel, son of Uri, or Oholiab, son of Ahisamech (see Ex. 31:1-11)?
3. Look at the diagram. What activities do you enjoy? What are you good at? What can you get paid for? What blesses others? How do these answers inform you about what is God's calling on your life, now and possibly in the future?
4. To become a Christian is to heed God's call. How did you become a Christian? Share your testimony.
5. As ones who are saved, we are also called to share the gospel with the lost – for God's glory and for their good and for our joy. Share the names of people in your life who are not (yet) Christians. Resolve to share the Good News of Jesus Christ with them. Pray together for their salvation. Maybe God has ordained their salvation and will call them when you share the gospel with them.
