May 28, 2023

As the church worldwide celebrate Pentecost, we take the opportunity to teach on a precious gift of the Holy Spirit - prophecy in the local church.

Listen in as Pete Greasley takes us to 1 Corinthians 14 and encourages us to pursue that which edifies and encourages others in the gospel of Jesus Christ.

For personal reflection/community discussion

Read – Read the passage in its context several times. Read it slow enough to understand what God is saying through it.

- What ideas or words are emphasised, repeated or related in this passage?
- In your own words, what is the main idea of this passage? (Try to summarise these verses in 10 words or less)

Examine – Next, try to understand the specifics of what the passage is communicating.

- What do you notice about God? What has he done/is he doing in these verses?
- What do you learn about Jesus and his gospel from this passage?
- What does it reveal about people?
- How do you think the writer wanted his reader to respond to these words?

Apply - After seeking to understand God's Word in this passage, consider how he intends to use it in your heart and life today.

- Before this message, what was your understanding of prophecy? How did you come to these ideas?
- Have you ever wanted to bring a contribution on a Sunday morning? What's stopped you? How might the gospel of Jesus free us from some of our inhibitions?
