

NO CONDEMNATION.

VIII

NO SEPARATION.

Res Judicata!– Romans 8:33-34

July 7, 2024

If there's now no condemnation for those in Christ Jesus, how can we enjoy that truth when we often feel condemned?

Pete Greasley shows us how God's judgment of His Son is the final word for us: 'All Charges dropped!'.

For personal reflection/community discussion

Read – Read the passage in its context several times. Read it slow enough to understand what God is saying through it.

- What ideas or words are emphasised, repeated or related in this passage?
- In your own words, what is the main idea of this passage? (Try to summarise these verses in 10 words or less)

Examine – Next, try to understand the specifics of what the passage is communicating.

- What do you notice about God? What has he done/is he doing in these verses?
- What do you learn about Jesus and his gospel from this passage?
- What does it reveal about people?
- How do you think the writer wanted his reader to respond to these words?

Apply - After seeking to understand God's Word in this passage, consider how he intends to use it in your heart and life today.

- Where and when are you most inclined to hear the voice of condemnation?
- What difference should the truths described in these verses make in your life? Try to be as specific as you can (for instance, "I'm inclined to A but because of... I can be know B...")
