

CONFOUNDING GRACE

Confounding Grace– 2 Kings 5

September 25, 2022

Join us as Bob McCan opens up 2 Kings 5 and shows us the confounding grace of God, whose ways are truly not the same as ours.

For personal reflection/community discussion

Read – Read the passage in its context several times. Read it slow enough to understand what God is saying through it.

- What ideas or words are emphasised, repeated or related in this passage?
- In your own words, what is the main idea of this passage? (Try to summarise these verses in 10 words or less)

Examine – Next, try to understand the specifics of what the passage is communicating.

- What do you notice about God? What has he done/is he doing in these verses?
- What do you learn about Jesus and his gospel from this passage?
- What does it reveal about people?
- How do you think the writer wanted his reader to respond to these words?

Apply - After seeking to understand God's Word in this passage, consider how he intends to use it in your heart and life today.

- What was most striking to you in the retelling of Naaman's healing?

- Have you ever asked of God “Why...?” during a time of real challenge or suffering? How did the Gospel help in that season?
- What about God’s character and his disposition towards sinners shines through this story?
