Key Talking Points:

- CBN news reports last September, 5 red heifers arrived in Israel from Texas where they were found amid great fanfare, because some Jews, and gentiles believe red heifers are a key element leading to the building of the third Jewish temple.
- The heifers are now in a secure, undisclosed location in Israel. Plans include moving them, sometime soon, to a visitor's center in Shiloh, where the tabernacle of the lord once stood for nearly 400 years.
- The book of numbers explains that ashes of the red heifer are used to purify priests for their service in the temple. The ceremony of the red heifer needs to be performed on the mount of olives, and in a place that would have looked directly into where the temple stood. The land directly east of the temple mount, purchased 12 years ago, meets both of those standards.
- One rabbi told CBN news that the temple institute also has nine pure priests who meet all the criteria to perform the ceremony.
- The ceremony is expected to take place possibly on Passover in a few weeks or Shavuot of this year.
- This will be the first ceremony in over 2000 years and once completed they can build the third temple.
- Some Jews believe the 10th heifer sacrifice, set to take place at Passover, are an imminent sign of the coming of messiah.

Key Talking Points:

- Biden and the white house are under fire for declaring March 31st, the transgender day of visibility, instead of resurrection Sunday or easter.
- In fact, per the gateway pundit, Biden also banned any Christian themed designs from being submitted to the white house’s easter themed art contest.
- Recently when confronted about proclaiming a Christian holiday the transgender day of visibility instead, Biden stated quote: “I didn’t do that.”
- The white house press secretary, Karine Jean-Pierre, said the date has been the transgender day of visibility for many years prior as well.

- However, the gateway pundit points out that the white house's decision to release the 2024 proclamation early, on March 29th, which was also Good Friday, was an attempt to spark outrage and diminish the importance of holy week.
- In addition, VP kamala Harris refused to mention Christians or Jesus Christ in her brief Happy Easter message yet has had very long messages in the past to celebrate abortion and the transgender movement.
