

Sermon Notes

Communion: We take Communion every Sunday as a church body. At his last supper with his disciples, Jesus "took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and gave it to them, saying, 'This is my body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me.'" (Luke 22:19). Repeating this act is a powerful image of our ongoing covenant renewal with the once crucified and now resurrected Christ. Anyone who believe in Jesus Christ as their personal savior are welcome to grab a cup from the tables at the front or back of the auditorium and eat it on your own during the following song. There is juice on the top and a cracker underneath.

Discussion Questions

The Aroma of Christ 2 Corinthians 2:14-17

1. Of the three relationships mentioned, which one is hardest for you: your relationship with Jesus, your relationship with other Christians, or your relationship with non-believers?
2. Take a moment to read 2 Corinthians 2:14-17 again. When was the last time you shared the gospel with someone and they reacted negatively?
3. When was the last time you shared the gospel with someone and they reacted positively?
4. What are some of the ways that Christians unnecessarily offend non-believers?
5. In terms of the three relationships mentioned, how could you improve your "missional living"?
6. What is one thing you want to remember, change, or view differently in light of our discussion today? How can this group support you?
