Discussion Questions

Centered on the Gospel (Part 1): The Gospel Message

1. What from the sermon do you hope we discuss? Or what did you find interesting, convicting, or encouraging?
2. What was the appeal of the gospel message to you when you became a Christian? What about the Christian message have you appreciated and gone deeper in the longer you've been a Christian?
3. In the sermon Pastor Josh went through the story of God - God+man, separated by sin, all that Jesus has done, and our response of faith in the throne and scales analogies. What did you find most helpful in explaining the gospel to others?
4. What do you think should motivate us to share the good news with people? What obstacles or hesitations do you have in sharing your faith?
5. What do you think Jesus offers that people need today?
6. Who can we be praying for in your life that needs to hear the good news of Jesus Christ?
