

For Such A Time As This: Week 7, What Are We Supposed to Do?

Small Group Discussion Questions

Getting Started

Take some time to catch up and connect as a group. Pray before discussion. Expect God to move through your time together!

Pacing Your Group

Move quickly through “observation” leaving enough time for “reflection”, “discussion”, and “surrender.”

Scripture Reading

Re-read the scripture passages as needed when you discuss the questions.

Observation: What does this scripture passage say?

Read: Micah 6:6-8

1. These verses contrast rituals (v6,7) with the actions of love, justice, and humility (v8). What’s the difference between these expressions of faith and relationship with God?

Reflection and Discussion: What are some first thoughts flowing from the scriptures?

Talk together about how the scriptures connect to everyday life.

Doing Justice

2. What does it mean to “do justice” in our thoughts and interactions with people? What scripture verses or Biblical principles come to mind that support your answer?

Love Mercy

3. What does it mean to extend mercy to others? When is this difficult?

Walk Humbly

4. How does a person become humble? What life events have taught you humility?

Our Culture

5. We live in an age of “horizontal information overload”, from social media to news feeds that are updated minute by minute, we can be deeply connected to national and world events all day long. In the middle of this information overload, what “vertical perspectives” is God revealing to you in these recent weeks? What encouragements or challenges is the Lord speaking to you?

Surrender: Responding to God’s voice.

6. What is one thing God is saying to you through this study and discussion?

* Take some time to pray for one another in response to what has been discussed today ****

We’re here!

We would love to hear about how things are going in your small group!
