

For Such A Time As This: Week 1

Justin Terry & Dan Jarrell, April 26, 2020

Small Group Discussion Questions

Take some time to catch up and connect as a group. Pray before discussion. Expect God to move through your time together!

An Overview of The Book Of Esther

1. Have someone from your group summarize the book of Esther before you begin. Here are some options:
 - Read an introduction/summary from a study Bible
 - Watch The Bible Project: <https://bibleproject.com/videos/esther/>
 - Read the book of Esther from a good children's Bible
 - Use the Bible knowledge in your group and retell the story with the pieces everyone remembers

Focusing-In on Esther Chapter 4

2. Have someone from your group read Chapter 4 out-loud.

Discussion Topic 1: God is always up to something good (whether we're aware of it or not)...

3. How is this true in the book of Esther?
4. How might this be true in this season (in our community, in our country, in our world)?

Discussion Topic 2: God invites you into what He's doing (God calls us to join Him and do our part)...

5. How is this true in the book of Esther?
6. How might this be true in this season (in our community, in our country, in our world)?

Discussion Topic 3: You can either retreat or engage (but His work is going to get done)...

7. How is this true in the book of Esther?
8. How might this be true in this season (in our community, in our country, in our world)?

Discussion Topic 4: You may never know the significance of your part until God is finished with His part.

9. How is this true in the book of Esther?
10. How might this be true in this season (in our community, in our country, in our world)?

Responding to God's voice.

11. What is one thing God is saying to you through this study and discussion?

* Take some time to pray for one another in response to what has been discussed today ****
