Life Group Discussion Questions

Getting Started

Take some time to catch up and connect as a group. Pray before discussion.
Expect God to move through your time together!

Pacing Your Group

Move quickly through “observation” leaving enough time for “reflection”, “discussion”, and “surrender.”

Scripture Reading

Re-read the scripture passages as needed when you discuss the questions.

Observation: What does this scripture passage say?

Take some time to look up and read: 1 Corinthians 9:22-23

To the weak I became weak, that I might win the weak. I have become all things to all people that by all means I might save some. I do it all for the sake of gospel, that I might share with them in its blessings.

1. Describe the word ALL in this passage.
 2. What part do we play in leading others to salvation?

Reflection and Discussion: What are some first thoughts flowing from the scriptures?

Talk together about how the scriptures connect to everyday life.

3. Talk about your day-to-day routine . . . does it reflect the garden purpose?
 - As honestly as possible, how do you feel about your current position at work?
 - What is your most enjoyable hobby? Why?
 - How much time per day, best guess, do you spend in “brainless activity?”
4. Talk about bringing focus & fulfillment into our day-to-day routine. (1 Cor. 9:19-23)
 - What are your initial thoughts on this passage?
 - Do you know who you talk to at work? Their stories, joys, & sorrows?
 - In what ways would your day-to-day interactions change if you began learning more about the people you’re routinely around?

Surrender: Committing to the path of ultimate human flourishing by bringing focus & fulfillment into our day-to-day routine!

5. Practical Challenge: Which is harder for you, to invite someone into your hobby, or invite yourself into someone else's? Do it!

* Take some time to pray for one another in response to what has been discussed today ****
