

Elijah & Elisha: The Lord of Hosts

2 Kings 6:8-23

May 31, 2026

- Acts 1:8
- Acts 17:6

God has called His church to be a voice for righteousness in their communities!

- Psalm 46:8-11
- 2 Kings 6:8-15

1. The Crisis: We're Overwhelmed by What we See!

The primary strategy of our enemy is to keep our heads in our butts and our eyes off the spiritual-reality

2. The Prayer: Lord, Open Our Eyes to What we Don't See!

- 2 Kings 6:16-17

A prophets role is calling people to see something they don't already see

Prayer reigns triumphant as our primary visional lens!

3. The Victory: We Rest in the Power of God!

- Acts 2:47b
- 2 Kings 6:16;18-20

"Fear arises when we imagine everything depends upon us."

- Elizabeth Elliot

4. The Response: We Overcome Evil With Mercy!

- 2 Kings 6:21-23

We have been freed to respond to opposition with radical kindness, echoing the New Testament call to overcome evil with good!

Challenge FOR Every Alaskan:

- 1. Read Psalm 46 everyday this week
- 2. In light of being a modern-day prophet, ask yourself:
 - A. If not this, then what?
 - B. If not me, then who?
 - C. If not now, then when?
