

Living a life of Honor: A Biblical Perspective

“When you value something, you’ll look past the dirt to see and get to the Gold.”

According to Webster’s Dictionary, the word Honor, as a noun, can be attributed to:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____ (“I had the honor of joining the my colleagues at the Dinner”)
4. _____ You’re addressing the judge as “Your Honor”
5. CREDIT, one whose worth brings respect of fame
6. _____ / _____ (“I fought fiercely for her honor and her life”)
7. _____ (“On my honor, I will be there”)

The word Honor as a verb, also according to Websters: would be for you and I to _____ or treat someone with _____ and _____.

This word Honor here in the greek is (time ‘tee-may’) meaning _____, i.e.,

_____, _____, or _____ itself

Question: How do you begin to live a life of honor in God?

1. _____.
2. _____ and _____.
3. Begin to _____.

Answers:

According to Webster's Dictionary, the word Honor, as a noun, can be attributed to:

1. REPUTATION, public esteem, or a good name
2. RECOGNITION, or merited respect
3. PRIVILEGE
4. TITLE
5. CREDIT, one whose worth brings respect of fame
6. CHASTITY/PURITY
7. INTEGRITY, a sense of ethical conduct.

The word Honor as a verb, also according to brother Webster, would be for you and I to regard, or treat someone with admiration and respect.

This word honor here in the greek is (time 'tee-may') meaning 'a value, i.e., money paid, esteem, or dignity itself.

Question: How do you begin to live a life of honor in God?

1. Realize and with the conviction that comes from God, begin to repent for not being honorable in your walk with God
2. As the Lord begins to show you certain places in your life, take action and start making immediate changes in order to begin living a life of honor before people and before the Lord.
3. Once you start to learn, begin to intentionally practice being Honorable.