

Application & Conclusion:

Just as Israel was called to look to their forefathers, so the author of Hebrews tells us to remember ours. However, as we run the race before us, remembering those who came before us, we are instructed to look to Christ Jesus who is the author and perfecter of our faith (cf. Hebrews 12:1-2).

Look back at Christ. Look forward to Christ. Remember the love and joy of Christ who bore the cross and calls you His treasured possession.

“Let us not grow weary of doing good, for in due season we will reap, if we do not give up” (Galatians 6:9).

“Therefore, my beloved brothers and sisters, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that in the Lord your labor is not in vain” (1 Corinthians 15:58).
