

The Divine Echo

John 16:12-15; 1 Corinthians 2:6-16 2 Peter 1:19-20

Bottom Line: The eternal Spirit takes eternal truths and gives us fresh understanding.

Introduction:

Over the last few weeks, we have been learning about the Person and Work of the Holy Spirit in the life of the believer.

Holy Spirit has also gone by two other titles: "Spirit of Truth" and "Spirit of Wisdom."

In John 16:12-15, we learn that the Spirit's ministry of truth is a Divine Echo.

Truth:

Today, we will discuss the Holy Spirit's role in the Church as it relates to the truth and wisdom of scripture.

Read 1	Corinthians 2:6-16.

Application & Conclusion:

The eternal Spirit takes eternal truths and gives us fresh understanding. We have a new lens through which we see the world, because the Spirit is always reminding us of Christ and His Word. We not only know the truth, but we know it to the extent of becoming wise.

We do not want to be smart or clever, we want to be wise. We want to have insight and understanding, a Spirit-animated perspective that glorifies Christ in the world. We receive that when we look at what the Spirit has already spoken in God's Word given to us.

Reflection Questions:

1. What does this teach me about God?

2. What does this teach me about me?

3. How do I apply this to my life?
