

Forgotten God

John 14:15-18; Romans 8:14

Bottom Line: You need the Holy Spirit to faithfully follow Jesus.

Introduction:

Who would have thought the most divisive subject in the Christian church would be God Himself?

The Holy Spirit is largely misunderstood.

For that reason, the Holy Spirit is largely ignored.

Truth:

To reject God the Holy Spirit is to also reject God the Father and God the Son (Romans 8:14). We need to know and embrace Him, perhaps now more than ever.

Application & Conclusion:

In this world, we need the Holy Spirit to keep us wise. In the church, we need the Holy Spirit to keep us holy. In our relationships, we need the Holy Spirit to keep us in love. In other words, we cannot carry out our Christian witness without the help of Holy Spirit.

Do not reject God the Holy Spirit. Instead, love Him with all your heart, soul, mind, and strength. He is your divine Helper in the days ahead.
