Holy Communion: Rite II

19th of April, 2026

11:00

Third Sunday of Easter

There is a nursery available upstairs.
Children's Chapel: ages 4 - 11, during the service.

Welcome to Galilee Church!

Dear Friends,

Welcome to Galilee this morning. If you're new and you have children, we want you to know that we have childcare and comprehensive programs for the children, including chapel and Sunday School. If you are in the 20-30 age group, I invite you to join my wife and me at our house on the 27th for dinner and a study (please register on the Galilee app—Young Adult Gathering).

And if you're new, we have refreshments after the service in Tucker Hall and I hope we'll see you there!

The Collect:

Officiant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Officiant: Let us pray.

O God, whose blessed Son made himself known to his disciples in the breaking of bread: Open the eyes of our faith, that we may behold him in all his redeeming work; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

(Children are dismissed for chapel.)

Holy Scripture:

(1) Acts 2:14a,36-41

Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed the crowd. [...]

Let the entire house of Israel know with certainty that God has made him both Lord and Messiah, this Jesus whom you crucified.’³⁷ Now when they heard this, they were cut to the heart and said to Peter and to the other apostles, ‘Brothers, what should we do?’³⁸ Peter said to them, ‘Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ so that your sins may be forgiven; and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. ³⁹For the promise is for you, for your children, and for all who are far away, everyone whom the Lord our God calls to him.’ ⁴⁰And he testified with many other arguments and exhorted them, saying, ‘Save yourselves from this corrupt generation.’ ⁴¹So those who welcomed his message were baptized, and that day about three thousand persons were added.

Officiant: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

(2) Psalm 116

(The congregation will reply with the even verses.)

¹ I love the LORD, because he has heard my voice and my supplications.

² *Because he inclined his ear to me,
therefore I will call on him as long as I live.*

³ The snares of death encompassed me;
the pangs of Sheol laid hold on me;
I suffered distress and anguish.

⁴ *Then I called on the name of the LORD:
‘O LORD, I pray, save my life!’*

⁵ Gracious is the LORD, and righteous;
our God is merciful.

⁶ *The LORD protects the simple;
when I was brought low, he saved me.*

⁷ Return, O my soul, to your rest,
for the LORD has dealt bountifully with you.

⁸ *For you have delivered my soul from death,
my eyes from tears, my feet from stumbling.*

⁹ I walk before the LORD
in the land of the living.

¹⁰ *I kept my faith, even when I said,
‘I am greatly afflicted’;*

¹¹ I said in my consternation,
‘Everyone is a liar.’

¹² *What shall I return to the LORD
for all his bounty to me?*

- ¹³ I will lift up the cup of salvation
and call on the name of the LORD,
- ¹⁴ *I will pay my vows to the LORD
in the presence of all his people.*
- ¹⁵ Precious in the sight of the LORD is the death of his faithful ones.
- ¹⁶ O LORD, I am your servant;
I am your servant, the child of your serving-maid.
You have loosed my bonds.
- ¹⁷ I will offer to you a thanksgiving sacrifice
and call on the name of the LORD.
- ¹⁸ *I will pay my vows to the LORD
in the presence of all his people,*
- ¹⁹ in the courts of the house of the LORD,
in your midst, O Jerusalem.
Praise the LORD!

(3) 1 Peter 1:17-23

If you invoke as Father the one who judges all people impartially according to their deeds, live in reverent fear during the time of your exile. ¹⁸ You know that you were ransomed from the futile ways inherited from your ancestors, not with perishable things like silver or gold, ¹⁹ but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without defect or blemish. ²⁰ He was destined before the foundation of the world, but was revealed at the end of the ages for your sake. ²¹ Through him you have come to trust in God, who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, so that your faith and hope are set on God. ²² Now that you have purified your souls by your obedience to the truth so that you have genuine mutual love, love one another deeply from the heart. ²³ You have been born anew, not of perishable but of imperishable seed, through the living and enduring word of God.

Officiant: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Sequence Hymn: No. 193 That Easter Day with Joy was Bright

Puer Nobis

(Please remain standing.)

(4) The Gospel:

Officiant: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.
People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Now on that same day two of them were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem, ¹⁴ and talking with each other about all these things that had happened. ¹⁵ While they were talking and discussing, Jesus himself came near and went with them, ¹⁶ but their eyes were kept from recognizing him. ¹⁷ And he said to them, ‘What are you discussing with each other while you walk along?’ They stood still, looking sad. ¹⁸ Then one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answered him, ‘Are you the only stranger in Jerusalem who does not know the things that have taken place there in these days?’ ¹⁹ He asked them, ‘What things?’ They replied, ‘The things about Jesus of Nazareth, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, ²⁰ and how our chief priests and leaders handed him over to be condemned to death and crucified him. ²¹ But we had hoped that he was the one to redeem Israel. Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things took place. ²² Moreover, some women of our group astounded us. They were at the tomb early this morning, ²³ and when they did not find his body there, they came back and told us that they had indeed seen a vision of angels who said that he was alive. ²⁴ Some of those who were with us went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said; but they did not see him.’ ²⁵ Then he said to them, ‘Oh, how foolish you are, and how slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have declared! ²⁶ Was it not necessary that the Messiah should suffer these things and then enter into his glory?’ ²⁷ Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them the things about himself in all the scriptures. ²⁸ As they came near the village to which they were going, he walked ahead as if he were going on. ²⁹ But they urged him strongly, saying, ‘Stay with us, because it is almost evening and the day is now nearly over.’ So he went in to stay with them. ³⁰ When he was at the table with them, he took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them. ³¹ Then their eyes were opened, and they recognized him; and he vanished from their sight. ³² They said to each other, ‘Were not our hearts burning within us while he was talking to us on the road, while he was opening the scriptures to us?’ ³³ That same hour they got up and returned to Jerusalem; and they found the eleven and their companions gathered together. ³⁴ They were saying, ‘The Lord has risen indeed, and he has appeared to Simon!’ ³⁵ Then they told what had happened on the road, and how he had been made known to them in the breaking of the bread.

Offertory Anthem:

Now the Green Blade Riseth

Simon Lindley

(Sung by the choir.)

Now the green blade riseth from the buried grain,
wheat that in dark earth many days has lain;
love lives again, that with the dead has been:
Love is come again like wheat that springeth green.

In the grave they laid him, Love whom hate had slain,
thinking that never he would wake again,
laid in the earth like grain that sleeps unseen:
Love is come again like wheat that springeth green.

Forth he came at Easter, like the risen grain,
he that for three days in the grave had lain,
quick from the dead my risen Lord is seen:
Love is come again like wheat that springeth green.

When our hearts are wintry, grieving, or in pain,
thy touch can call us back to life again,
fields of our hearts that dead and bare have been:
Love is come again like wheat that springeth green.
