

LESSON 5 FRIENDSHIP EVANGELISM by Kimberly Sciscoe

Techniques For Answering Their Questions

"If you want to hear more from God, ask Him more questions." –Jason Sciscoe

1. Talk ____ them, rather than above them or below them.
2. Be _____. It does 3 things:
3. If the Bible is _____ on a subject, then you should stay silent.
4. Do not give _____ opinions as answers to questions about the Bible.

Our opinions are not on the same level as God's inspired Word.

5. It is ok not to know the answer, but it is not okay to _____ at the answer.
6. Do not _____ questions no one is asking.
7. _____ a seed that you (or someone else) can water later.
8. Answer a _____ with a question.

Ex:

8. Be explanatory, but not _____ or defensive in your answer.

Examples:

Question: My church is very quiet. Why is your church kind of noisy with all of the clapping and singing?

Wrong answer: At our church we clap, sing and worship because the Bible tells us to.

Right answer: We take our pattern of worship from the book of Psalms. Would you like to look at some Scriptures there?

HELP, It's Time for Me to Teach a Bible Study

You have earned their trust, now you have the chance to impart truths that can change their eternity. To think, I can altar someone's eternity. Is there anything greater?

Before the Bible Study-Making the Right Choices

1. You cannot negotiate with God until you are willing to be _____ to Him.

2. If you have the _____ with them, then you are the best person for to teach the Bible Study.
3. The best time to teach a Bible Study is the _____ time God gives you the opportunity.
4. The right Bible Study to teach is the one that meets their immediate _____.
5. The best _____ for a Bible study is wherever your friend will feel most comfortable.
6. If you can _____, then you can teach a Bible Study. I PROMISE 😊
7. Familiarize yourself with your student's _____ backgrounds.

Teaching/During the Bible Study

1. If at all possible, come _____ to the site of your Bible Study so you can have a few minutes to rest and _____. Unless it's at their home, then be on time. 😊
2. Start every Bible Study with _____. Pray with your student about any personal _____ they may have.
3. Establish the _____ of the Bible as God's written Word.
4. Explain the _____ or layout of the Bible.
5. Alternate the reading of the _____ with your students.
6. Check for _____.
7. _____ them to ask questions during the Bible study.
8. Discuss salvation _____ only when you have _____ to search the Scriptures.
9. Never _____ through a Bible study to finish it in one session.
10. Be courteous and stick to your _____ allotment.

After the Bible Study

1. Let your students _____ about what they have learned.
2. Give them a short _____ assignment to complete before the next study.
3. During the week, encourage them with a _____, a _____ or a _____.

*Bible Study Catalogue of choices. Put this into practice. Purchase and teach your Bible Study. You can do it!