

HE IS GENTLE TO TAKE YOUR BURDENS

– Pastor Marquell Womack

Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. Matthew 11:28

The One who asks for our devotion doesn't come to us harshly or demanding. Instead, our God comes with an invitation: "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavily burdened, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you, and learn from Me. For I am meek and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy, and My burden is light" (Matt. 11:28–30, MEV). Our God is "lowly in heart." The King who rode into Jerusalem on a donkey can relate to you. He wants to take your burdens and carry them with you. When we see Jesus the way He truly is, we cannot help but love Him! The eternal God of the universe comes in a way where He has made Himself low enough for us to touch Him. The God who should be beyond our reach makes Himself available and sensitive to us so that we can touch Him.

The question is, what will we do with this humble King? Will we humble ourselves too? Will we disconnect from everything that causes His heart to break?

Be completely humble and gentle; be patient, bearing with one another in love. Make every effort to keep the unity of the Spirit through the bond of peace.
Ephesians 4:2-3

Let's close this devotional by praying this simple prayer:

Jesus, I love You. Thank You that I don't have to be afraid of You. Thank You that You know me, feel me, and don't condemn me. Thank You for receiving me. Help me to share my whole life with You. Teach me how to let You carry my burdens. Help me to walk as You do, in gentleness and humility.
