21 Days Of Prayer And Fasting

DAY 20

God Wants to Hear from You

"This is the confidence we have in approaching God: that if we ask anything according to his will, he hears us." 1 John 5:14

As humans, we are wired for relationships and communication with others. We thrive when we have healthy relationships and feel connected with friends and family. The best way we can communicate and connect with our Heavenly Father is through prayer. We've all tried talking to someone who is only half-heartedly listening to us. It's frustrating, right? The terrific news is that God will never listen only halfway. Your Heavenly Father that created the entire universe, is actually waiting to hear from you and openly inviting you to have a conversation with Him, at any moment in time. God doesn't have ADHD and won't be distracted by His phone, or by the TV, or the kids. He will be intently listening to what you have to say and will not only hear you but will also respond to your prayers and requests that you make and works on your behalf. The key is that we have to communicate with Him and ask. No secret formula, no fancy words, no specific number of Amens or Hallelujahs, just plain and simply talking to God and asking for what you need.

Challenge: Take time each day to pray and communicate with God. Be open about your desires and your needs because He already knows what you need anyway, He is just waiting for you to ask.
